About the Cover

The 1999 media guide cover recaptures some of the significant moments and great memories of the decade of the 1990's, a decade of success and achievement that not only ranks as the finest in UF history but among the finest for a school in collegiate history.

- 1 Gator players celebrate on the sidelines as the final seconds tick off the clock in a dramatic last minute 32-29 win over top-ranked Florida State in 1997, a contest that many long-time Gator observers classify as the greatest game ever played at Florida Field.
- 2 Steve Spurrier presents a Florida jersey to President Bill Clinton during a special reception at the White House in March of 1997 in honor the 1996 National Championship Gator team.
- 3 Steve Spurrier and the signal posse for a informal team photo at Florida Field after a 35-26 win over Kentucky in 1991 gave the Gators their first official SEC Championship. Florida went on to win additional SEC titles in 1993, '94, '95 and '96.
- 4 Timmy Rowell and Michael Brandon embrace after the Gators posted a 48-7 win over unbeaten and fourth ranked Auburn in 1990, the first of many impressive wins for Spurrier's Gators at "The Swamp" in the 1990's. UF is 53-2 at Florida Field in the 1990's, including a 31-1 mark vs. SEC foes, and it has posted eight wins over teams ranked in the Top 10 at game time. Florida enters the 1999 campaign with a 27-game home win streak, the longest current mark in the nation.
- 5 Defensive tackle William Gaines salutes the Gator fans after a pulsating defensive battle with Florida State in 1991 that resulted in a 14-9 upset win over the Seminoles.
- 6 Steve Spurrier is hoisted onto his player's shoulders after the Gators posted a 28-13 win over Alabama in the 1993 SEC Championship Game in Birmingham, the first of four successive wins in this championship game for Florida.
- 7 Donnie Young and Lawrence Wright embrace after the Gators post an impressive 52-20 win over top-ranked Florida State in the 1997 Nokia Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, which gave Florida the 1996 National Championship.
- 8 Danny Wuerffel, one of the most productive and efficient quarterbacks in collegiate history, captured the 1996 Heisman Trophy.

This elevator will go to all levels of the press operation. "Press Will Call" will be located in the press elevator lobby at street level. You will pick up late request credentials and parking passes here, as well as photo sideline credentials/wristbands.

Working Press Deck (Level 3) - This level is reserved for media seating and statistical operations. Fax Service is available. We suggest that you let us know in advance what your needs in this area might be on game day. Several rental phones are available in the press box, which are used by dozens of media reps. If you have concerns about meeting tight deadlines, we strongly encourage you to order your own phone (see section on telephones).

Television Networks, Radio Networks, Coaches Booth, Dining Area (Level 4) - This level is reserved for television networks that are doing the game on a live or delayed basis. This level also houses the radio network for Florida and its respective opponent on game day. Each of the coaching staffs has one booth designated for its use. This level also contains the serving and eating areas for media representatives only.

Photo Deck (Level 5) - This deck offers a spacious area for all video cameras that are covering the game. This area also will be used for filming by each of the coaching staffs. Security and Game Operation booths are also located on this level.

Sidelines

The University of Florida follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers and videographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25 yard lines and they must wear a photo wristband at all times. The bench areas between the 25 yard lines are off limits to all media reps. No credentials will be issued to free-lance photographers, out-line writers, equipment carriers, or radio station representatives except for the two originating networks. A "photo only" zone has been established on the Florida Field sidelines. Only people wearing a game photo wristband with photo or video equipment will be permitted in this area. All other media representatives on the field (announcers, reporters, etc.) must stand behind the "photo only" zone. This will ensure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate area to do their work.

Credentials

Press Box - All members of the media covering the game in a working capacity must seek appropriate credentials in advance from Norm Carlson. We would appreciate receiving these requests as early as possible. Requests for working space in the press box and photo credentials for the sidelines will be honored from Sports Editors of DAILY Newspapers and Sports Directors of Television Stations ONLY. Due to the heavy demand for working space, credentials for radio stations are limited to immediate Gainesville area stations and the two broadcast network crews doing the game. Any radio station seeking in-game and post-game reports can receive them by calling the SID Office in advance (ask for Steve Shaff), to make proper arrangements with our staff. Request for working credentials must be made in advance in writing to Norm Carlson. Spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers, and anyone 16 years of age or younger, are not permitted in the press box. Violators will not be tolerated. Media agencies or bowls that violate this policy will not be issued credentials for future games.

Sideline Credentials - Media representatives with a gameday sideline photo/video credential form must report to Harriette Peebles in the Press Elevator Lobby prior to the game. When you present the appropriate letter and identification, a sideline wristband will be issued at that time. Your game credential or letter will not gain admittance to the photo zone on the sidelines. Media reps wearing a photo wristband and carrying cameras will be the only people that will be permitted to enter the "Photo Only" zone on the field.

Websites

Due to lack of working space, credentials will not be issued to web sites. The only web site situated in the press box will be UF's official site and it will serve as the only source of information via the Internet during the game.

Press Will Call

Late requested game credentials and parking passes that cannot be mailed can be picked up at "Press Will Call" in the Press Box elevator lobby area. Game stand tickets that have been ordered by the media can also be picked up at the Press Will Call Window.

Parking

You should request your parking credential at the same time you request your game day working credentials. Parking credentials are limited. If time permits, both of these credentials (press box and parking) will be mailed. If time doesn't permit the parking credential to be mailed, you will have to pick it up on Friday at the SID Office or on Saturday at the Press Box elevator lobby area before gaining admittance to the press parking area. Parking will be in the grass lots at the north end of the stadium (corner of University Avenue and North-South Drive).

Hotel Rooms

The SID Office has a limited number of rooms reserved in the area for the media. We would be glad to assist you with a hotel room if you get in touch with us at least two weeks before the game.

Please contact Harriette Peebles and she will do everything possible to assist you.

Food and Beverages

A hot pre-game meal will be served on Level 4 of the press box beginning one-and-a-half hours before kickoff. Snacks and beverages are available on Level 1 throughout the game as well as after the game while you complete your work in the press box.

Press Box and Post-Game Information Services

Play-by-play, complete halftime and final statistics, coaches and players quote sheets, defensive units, and post-game notes are all regular services on game day. Upon your arrival, you will receive an extensive press folder with game program, flipcard, updated statistics, biographical sketches, and game-day notes. An internal PA system will provide updated information and notes throughout the game.

Post-Game Interviews

Florida's SID staff will escort media representatives to appropriate locker room areas with 3-5 minutes remaining in the game. Florida coach and player interviews will be conducted in the south endzone conference center. Coach Spurrier will conduct a press conference in the media conference room 10 minutes after the contest. His conference can also be heard via an amplified phone hookup in the press box should you be facing tight deadlines. Florida players will be brought to the conference center for interviews as soon as possible.

Coach and player interviews for Florida's opponent will be coordinated by the opponent SID staff in a media interview area attached to the opponent locker area. The interview area is located under the stands outside the southeast tunnel area of Florida Field. Signs and staff will help direct you.

Fax Service

Please see page 5 for a description of the Fax-On-Demand Service. Fax service is also available in the press box to send information back to your agency at the conclusion of the game. There is a small fee for this service depending on the amount of information you want sent. Hal Media interested in this system and service should call Pivotal Communications in Atlanta (770-399-0096) for further information on the registration process and costs.

Desk is the fax service representative that will coordinate this service in the press box on game day. Please contact him or a member of the SID staff on game-day to discuss your specific needs.

Telephone Information

We strongly encourage you to make sure that your phone needs are met before gameday. Telephone orders for lines should be placed directly with Southern Bell (Susan Fisher, 1-800-781-0063). Remember, you must place separate orders for your phone line and for the appropriate equipment or you must bring the appropriate equipment with you. The SID office will not be able to help you with a phone line and/or equipment on the day of the game. You should take care of these matters as soon as possible. A bank of rental phones is available to the media on level three of the press box (print media and statistical operations). The SID office also has a few other phones that it uses for fax services and radio reports. Once again, if you envision tight deadline problems, we strongly encourage you to order your own line as the SID phones, fax phones and the rental phones available to the media are in almost constant use for two hours after the game.

Georgia Game - Media representatives wishing to install phone lines for this game in Jacksonville, should call Cindy Robbins at Southern Bell (904-633-6102). Remember to also order a phone or bring a phone with you if you are having a line installed by Southern Bell.

ext. 6000 - Jerry Wexzel).

The SEC office will also be sending a satellite feed of player and coach interviews from all 12 conference schools. Specifics will be announced later.

NCAA and SEC Guidelines and the Media

Media members should be aware of several NCAA and SEC rules that apply to student-athletes. If there is ever a question if any media-related activity or event including a Florida student-athlete could be a possible NCAA violation, contact the Compliance Office for an interpretation. Areas of concern include:

- Coaches and University officials cannot make comments on prospective student-athletes until they sign a national letter of intent. A coach cannot comment on a prospective student-athlete who verbally commits to an institution.
- Student-athletes are not permitted to endorse commercial products or services.
- SEC rules prohibit student-athletes from appearing on live radio talk shows.
- Photographers cannot provide student-athletes with photographs or slides.
- The institution cannot publicize the visit of a prospect on an official or unofficial visit.

As the final season of the decade of the 1990's approaches, a decade that has unquestionably ranked as the finest in school history and among the finest for any school in SEC history, the Gators will seek to rely on the pride that has been developed by that nearly decade long period of sustained success and achievement to provide the commitment and dedication it will take to overcome several areas of concern, especially program in the nation during the 90's, including a sparkling 66-9 mark in SEC play, the most conference wins during a decade by a school in the long and storied history of the Southeastern Conference. The Gators have garnered five SEC titles and one national championship and been ranked in the weekly polls 151 of a possible 152 weeks during the 1990's, including a top 10 ranking 129 weeks. Florida is one of only three major college schools to win

State for the most from one college team in the draft) and rebuild a defense that loses nine starters, including the entire front seven. That snuffed the SEC in every major statistical category in 1998 and was one of only five in the country last fall to rank in the top 10 in final national statistical rankings in rush defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense. There are few seniors on the '99 defensive unit and only one projects as a starter entering fall drills. Several untested players will have to step forward for the Gator defense to play at the championship level that has come to be expected.

If the rebuilding on the defensive side of the ball proves to be successful under new coordinator Jon Hoke then the Gators will likely enjoy another standout season because the offense appears to have enough proven performers and depth to once again rank among on the defensive side of the football.

Steve Spurrier, the dear of SEC coaches, is beginning his 10th year at the helm of the Gator program. He inherited a program at the turn of the decade that was regarded as an underachiever and has clearly turned it into one of the college football's elite.

Florida's list of achievements during the decade is indeed impressive and clearly show why it has resulted in "elite" classification. Florida, under Spurrier, has posted an overall record of 93-18-1, the third-best win total for a Division I-A at least nine games in each of the nine seasons of this decade and it has become the only school in SEC history, and among only three schools in major college history, to win at least 10 games for a period of six straight seasons (1993-98).

If the Gators are to stretch their streak of 10-win seasons to seven straight, return to the SEC Championship Game for the first time since 1996 and in general continue the impressive winning ways it has exhibited during the 1990's, it will have to replace eight players drafted by NFL teams this past April (led with Olun he nation's finer units. Two proven quarterbacks in Doug Johnson and Jesse Palmer, a good wide receiver group led by All-America candidate Travis Taylor and an offensive line that returns eight of the top 10 players from last fall would appear to give the Gators a solid group on that side of the ball.

Once again the schedule is filled with challenges and the home slate ranks among the most enticing in school history. Defending national champion Tennessee, Florida State and Alabama headline the list of schools coming to Florida Field, a.k.a. "The Swamp," where the Gators have posted a 53-2 record during the decade of the '90's and enter the new season with the nation's longest current home win streak at 27. Kentucky, LSU, Auburn, Georgia and South Carolina are games that will take place away from friendly Florida Field.

Offense

Florida returns seven starters, and several other significant performers from the '98 team which ranked fifth in the nation in passing (346.1 ypg) and 14th in total offense (461.9 ypg). Senior Doug Johnson and junior Jesse Palmer each started six games at quarterback last fall. Four starters, and eight of the top 10 players on the offensive line, return. Travis McNiff, who had a sensational season last fall, has departed the receiver unit but junior Travis Taylor appears ready to become the next Gator All-America wide receiver and the depth appears better on this unit entering the new campaign than in '98. Terry Jackson has departed at running back but the overall depth and talent appears improved from 1998.

Although Florida ranked 14th in the nation in total offense in 1998 there are a couple of areas where the Gators are seeking major improvement this fall. Improving the rushing game, reducing the number of turnovers and improving efficiency and productivity in the red zone are areas where the Gators want to show significant strides in 1999.

Although Florida ranked 14th in the nation in total offense in 1998 there are a couple of areas where the Gators are seeking major improvement this fall. Improving the rushing game, reducing the number of turnovers and improving efficiency and productivity in the red zone are areas where the Gators want to show significant strides in 1999. Florida averaged just 15.8 rushing yards per game last fall, a figure that ranked 95th in the nation and was the second-lowest mark for a Spurrier-coached Gator team this decade. The Gators rushed for just nine TDs last fall, the lowest for a Florida team since the 0-10-1 unit rushed for only three touchdowns in 1979.

The Gator offense was credited with 29 turnovers last fall, a major reason why Florida ranked tied for 95th in the nation in the all-important turnover margin with a figure of minus-nine. From 1990-97 the Spurrier-led Gator offense was one of the nation's best inside the red zone, scoring touchdowns once inside the opponent 20-yard line an impressive 70% of the time. Last year the Gators scored a touchdown once inside the red zone just 44% of the time with a 38% average in SEC games.

Quarterback

The Gators have a solid situation here with the presence of two proven performers, senior Doug Johnson and junior Jesse Palmer. Combined, the duo passed for nearly 3,600 yards while throwing for 33 TDs in 1998. Johnson and Palmer both started six games last fall.

Johnson, who suffered a broken fibula in the season finale last year during the 31-10 win over Syracuse in the FedEx Orange Bowl, enters the fall as the likely starter. He missed all of spring drills as he continued to recover from the leg injury. He started the final six games of the '98 season and on the year completed 154 of 274 passes for 2,346 yards with 19 TDs while compiling a pass efficiency rating of 145.17, fourth-best in the SEC and 19th in the nation. Johnson's 42 career TD passes ranks as the fifth best total in school history and his 4,540 passing yards is seventh-best in Gator history.

Palmer started the first six games of the 1998 season before suffering a broken clavicle in week six against LSU, which sidelined him for the rest of the regular season. He took over for Johnson in the Orange Bowl when Johnson suffered the broken fibula. Palmer completed 73 of 123 passes for 1,246 yards and 14 TDs while posting a pass efficiency rating of 173.87, a mark that ranked first in the SEC and third-best in the nation midway in the season when he suffered his injury.

Sophomore Kevin McKinnon, a walk-on transfer from Northwestern, and freshman Rex Grossman will continue to battle for backup duty behind Johnson and Palmer. McKinnon came out of spring drills as the squad's number three quarterback heading into fall drills.

Running Back

New names dominate the running back position this fall. The Gator coaching staff is hopeful that the young, but talented unit will provide a spark to a rushing attack that did not meet expectations last fall.

Gone is Terry Jackson, a prominent name in the Gator running game for each of the past four seasons. Despite missing a significant amount of playing time the past two seasons due to knee and ankle injuries he completed his career with 1,793 rushing yards, the 13th-best mark in school history. He led last year's team in rushing with Sophomore Robert Gillespie (left) ranked third on last year's team in rushing with 310 yards and he also caught 17 passes. Redshirt freshman Earnest Graham (right) saw very limited duty in the first two games of 1998 before suffering a foot injury which sidelined him for the balance of the season.

587 yards and was selected in the fifth round of last April's NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Eugene McCaslin, last year's second leading rusher with 321 yards, was moved to defense this spring and enters the fall in a position to see a good deal of playing time at strongside linebacker.

Whereas Jackson was clearly the Gators' top back last fall, the '99 season might very well see several players play key roles at different points of the game or year. Sophomore Robert Gillespie, junior Vannez Gooch and redshirt freshman Earnest Graham and Chuck Marks enter the fall looking for leading roles at tailback. Gillespie ranked third on last year's team with 310 rushing yards while Gooch is a transfer from Florida State who sat out last fall. Graham, a powerful 5-9, 218 pounder, and Marks, a shifty runner, had impressive springs. Graham suffered a broken bone in his foot early in the '98 campaign and received a medical red-shirt, while Marks suffered a knee injury in a high school all-star game prior to his enrollment at Florida last year and sat out the entire season. Coming out of spring drills Graham was ahead of the pack with Marks and Gillespie in close pursuit.

Florida averaged just 115.8 rushing yards per game last fall, a figure that ranked 95th in the nation and was the second lowest mark for a Spurrier coached Gator team this decade.

Junior Rod Frazier headlines the fullback contingent.

He was the squad's top fullback for much of the 1998 season, missing the last three games due to a knee injury. Sophomore Rob Roberts, who was moved from tight end and was the squad's top fullback in the later stages of the last season after Frazier's injury, also returns. Sophomore Luke Farmer, who missed all of last season with a knee injury, suffered another knee injury midway through spring drills and his status for the start of the season is questionable.

Receivers

Florida loses its two starters at wide receiver: Travis McGriff and Nafis Karim, but this unit, headlined by junior Travis Taylor, was one of the positives of spring drills.

McGriff, a third-round selection in last April's NFL Draft by the world champion Denver Broncos, had one of the great years for a receiver in Gator history in 1998, catching 70 passes for 1,357 yards, the top single-season reception yardage total in SEC history. The Biletnikoff Award semifinalist averaged 19.4 yards per catch, the best single-season mark in Gator history. He had eight 100-yard receiving games last fall and averaged 123.4 receiving yards per game, a mark that ranked fourth-best in the nation. Karim started every game last year and had 34 catches for 552 yards.

Taylor, the MVP of the 1998 FedEx Orange Bowl after catching seven passes for 159 yards and two touchdowns in the Gators' 31-0 win over Syracuse, appears ready to emerge as Florida's next All-America wide receiver. Last year as a true sophomore he ranked second on the squad in catches (37), yardage (679) and touchdowns (9). He caught at least one touchdown pass in nine of 12 games last season.

Darrell Jackson had 30 catches last year as a true sophomore, including five for TDs.

His performance this past spring indicates that he is ready to take on play from another level this fall.

What was so encouraging this spring, however, is that in addition to Travis Taylor and Darrell Jackson several other members of the wide receiver contingent, which includes no seniors, also had that regularly uses as many as five receivers.

Juniors Alex Willis, a walk-on who had 10 catches for 244 yards last year, and Ben Skinner who moved into a starting role early last season before suffering a knee injury which caused him to sidelined him this spring, are other returning upperclassmen. They will continue to be pushed by a crop of sophomores. Brian Haugabrook, junior capel and Steve Shipp. Redshirt freshman Reese Calowell also had an impressive spring.

Haugabrook, who saw limited time during his redshirt freshman season in 1998, showed tremendous improvement this spring. Capel, who ranks with the nation's fastest football players, did not see a great deal of duty this spring as he was a nationally prominent sprinter on the Gator track team. He was named the Most Outstanding Male Athlete at the 1999 Junior Track & Field Championships after capturing his national title in the 200 meters (time of 19.87 tied for the world's fastest time for 1999) and finishing second in the 100 meters with a time of 10.03. Capel's time of

At tight end, senior Erwin Kinney headlines the unit. Kinney, a 6-6, 266 pounder, had eight catches for 79 yards and three touchdowns last fall. He took part in limited duty this spring as he recovered from shoulder surgery. Two redshirt freshmen, 6-6, 240-pounder Aaron Walker and 6-4, 215 pounder Kirk Wells will see duty as well. Wells had an impressive spring and reminds many water followers of Kirk Kirkpatrick, an outstanding pass catching tight end for the Gators in the early 1990's.

Offensive Line

With eight of last year's offensive players returning, the Gator staff is looking for some significant improvement from this unit in both the passing and rushing games. Florida ranked 95th in the country last year in rushing, averaging just 15.8 yards per game. The inability to consistently run the ball also played a significant role in Florida's dramatic falloff in its overall efficiency and effectiveness inside the red zone.

Six players who have started games on the offensive line return for duty in 1999.

Travis Taylor caught at least one TD pass in nine of 12 games last year as a sophomore and was named MVP of the 1999 FedEx Orange Bowl.

What was so encouraging this spring is that in addition to Travis Taylor and Darrell Jackson, several other members of the wide receiver contingent, which includes no seniors, also had solid springs.

solid springs. Junior Darrell Jackson had 30 catches for 345 yards and five touchdowns last fall and will likely join Taylor as a starter. Behind Taylor and Jackson, competition will continue to be keen for prominent playing time in a rotation

Kenyatta Walker was a Freshman All-America selection last year at offensive tackle.

With eight of last year's top 10 players returning, the Gator staff is looking for some significant improvement from the offensive line in both the passing and running games. Six players who have started games on the offensive line return for duty in 1999. Those players have combined for 95 career starts entering the new campaign.

Those players have combined for 95 career starts entering the new campaign. The only significant loss off of last year's unit is tackle Zach Piller, a first-team All-SEC choice who was selected in the third round of April's NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans.

At tackle, senior Cooper Carlisle and sophomore Kenyatta Walker headline the unit. Carlisle, who started games at both guard and tackle last fall, enters the fall as the projected starter at left tackle while Walker, a first-team freshman All-America selection by Football News last year, opens the season at right tackle. Walker started eight games last fall and has the potential to become a top all-star graduate at some point in his Gator career. Senior Scott Bryan and redshirt freshmen Mike Pearson and Aaron Deal are the top backups at tackle. Pearson is quite talented and his continued improvement at left tackle could result in Carlisle moving to guard. Sophomore Ben Brown, the top backup at left guard, could also play tackle.

At guard, two experienced seniors, Ryan Kalich and Cheston Blackshear, enter the fall atop the depth chart. Kalich's 31 career starts is tops for any member of the Gator offensive unit while Blackshear has 18 career starts under his belt. Sophomore Ben Brown opens the fall as the top backup to Kalich at left guard and junior Leron Hires leads in the battle for the top backup role at right guard. Sophomore Erik Strange and freshman David Kearley provide additional depth.

At center, junior Zac Zedalis returns after starting 10 games at that spot last fall. The Gator coaching staff feels he could emerge as the SEC's

Defense

New defensive coordinator Jon Hoke inherits a unit that must replace nine starters from last year's outstanding defensive squad, including the entire front seven.

inherits a defensive unit that must replace nine starters from last year's outstanding defensive squad, including the entire front seven. Gone are seven senior starters, as well as All-America linebacker Jevon Kearse and all-conference defensive tackle Reggie McGrew, who passed up their final year of eligibility to enter last April's NFL Draft, where both were first round selections.

A Florida defense that led the SEC in every major statistical category in 1998 must regroup in 1999 with the loss of nine starters, eight of whom signed NFL contracts.

Junior Derrick Chambers, a starter in four games at tackle last year, was moved to defensive end this spring.

What a difference a year makes. Last year the Gators entered the season with a front four that many preseason publications called the nation's finest. It had proven and experienced performers, as well as depth. This year's front four will likely be classified among the nation's most unproven and depth is on the thin side.

Florida's 1998 unit was the strength of the Gator squad. It held opponents to an average of just 286.6 yards per game: 90.7 rushing and 95.9 passing, a figure that led the SEC and ranked ninth best in the nation. The Gators led the SEC in rushing defense, passing defense, scoring defense and total defense and were one of only five teams in the nation to rank among the country's top 10 in each of those four categories in final NCAA statistics. It held nine of 12 opponents to 14 or fewer points and tied for the SEC lead in QB sacks with 39.

The quality of the departed players from this nationally ranked group was clearly demonstrated at this past April's NFL Draft as five Gator defenders were selected in the top three rounds, the most for a school in the nation. Overall, counting free agent signings, the Gators lost eight players on the defensive side of the ball who signed NFL contracts.

Gone from that standout 1998 unit is the entire starting linebacker unit of Jason Karsse, Johnny Rutledge and Mike Peterson, which many arguably considered the nation's finest. Also gone is free safety Teako Brown, a first-team All-SEC performer and three-year starter. All-SEC cornerback Tony George and several quality linemen (Reggie McGrew, Ed Chesler, Willie Cohens, Tim Beaudry) have also departed.

This will be an extremely inexperienced defensive team that has just six seniors, none of whom are underclassmen returning starters. It is a unit that will have to rely on many underclassmen and is thin depth-wise at several spots.

What a difference a year makes. Last year the Gators entered the season with a front four that many preseason publications called the nation's finest. It had proven and experienced performers as well as depth. This year's front four will likely be classified among the nation's most unproven and depth is on the thin side. Its performance is one of the key questions marks for Florida's success in 1999.

three starts, two at tackle and one at end. He was credited with 16 total tackles on the season.

Defensive tackle ranks as the the thinnest spot on the team. Departing are Ed Chester and Reggie McGrew. Chester was a prominent member of the defensive line contingent for four years and even though he missed the last half of the from shoulder surgery Campbell has seen limited playing time during his Gator career. Warren will miss the first two games of the season due to a suspension. Moody and Reynolds, a small but quick player who was named the defensive unit's most improved freshman this spring, will likely open the season as starters

Linebacker

It is fair to say that no school in the nation lost as much at this position as did Florida. The Gator loss of Mike Peterson, Johnny Runledge and Jevon Kearse arguably ranked as the nation's biggest unit. That fact was clearly emphasized in this past April's NFL Draft as all three were selected in the first two rounds. No other school in the nation had three linebackers chosen in the opening two rounds of the draft.

Kearse, a first-round choice by the Tennessee Titans after deciding to bypass his senior season, was a first-team All-America choice as well as one of three finalists for the while Beauchamp signed with Cleveland. Junior Derrick Chambers, a starter in four games at tackle in 1998, was moved to end this spring and clearly emerged as a starter. Sophomore Alex Brown, the top backup to Jevon Kearse at strongside linebacker last fall, spent the majority of the spring at the rush end spot and he enters the fall battling Anthony Mitchell for the top spot at that position. He will also continue to see duty at outside linebacker this fall. Chambers moved into a top role at tackle last fall when starter Ed Chester suffered a season ending knee injury at the midpoint of the season. He registered 28 tackles on the season.

Seniors Anthony Mitchell and Thaddeus Bullard and junior Buck Gurley round out the defensive end unit. Mitchell had 20 tackles while playing in 10 games last year while Bullard was credited with 11 tackles while playing in all 12 games in 1998. Junior Buck Gurley played in eight games last year with

'98 season with a severe knee injury he still garnered second team All America status last season and was a semifinalist for the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He was considered a likely first round selection in the 1999 NFL Draft at the time of his severe knee injury. McGrew, a first-team All-SEC selection last fall, bypassed his senior year to re-enter the NFL Draft and was a first-round selection in this past April's draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Sophomores Gerard Warren and Thomas Moody, junior Jayme Campbell and redshirt freshman Chris Reynolds comprise the defensive tackles unit. Only Warren has seen significant collegiate time. Some incoming freshmen could enter the picture this fall and Chambers and Gurley could also see time here if called upon. Warren was credited with 27 tackles last fall as a backup to Reggie McGrew while Moody missed the entire season recovering first-team All-America choice. He was chosen in the second round of the draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Rutledge, a three year starter who was a Butkus Award semifinalist in both the 1997 and 1998 seasons, was selected in the second round of the draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

Like the defensive line unit, the linebacker contingent is thin in the depth department as just six scholarship players took part in spring drills at these three positions. Like the defensive line, this is an area where incoming freshmen will have a opportunity to garner some playing time.

Sophomore Andra Davis enters the fall as the likely replacement for junior Rutledge at the middle linebacker spot while senior Keith Kelsey is slated to start at the weakside spot which was played so well by Peterson last fall. Davis saw action in all 12 games last fall and was credited with 11 tackles in a backup role while Kelsey garnered 34 tackles. Juniors Teddy Sims and Daryl Owens enter the fall as the top backups at inside linebacker. Sims, who was named the squad's most improved inside linebacker this spring, projects as Kelsey's top backup while Owens enters the fall as the top backup to Davis.

Sophomore Alex Brown, senior Eugene McCaslin and redshirt freshman Marcus Oquendo-Johnson are battling for the right to replace Kearse at strongside linebacker. The versatile Brown will see duty here as well as rush end. McCaslin was moved to this post from tailback. His 321 rushing yards last season ranked as the second-top total on the squad. Oquendo-Johnson was one of the underclass standouts during spring drills and was selected the most improved outside linebacker.

Defensive Back

Teako Brown and Tury George, two very experienced players, have departed. Brown, a three year starter at free safety, completed his Gator career with the second most interceptions (14) in school history while George was starter at strong safety in 1997 and at cornerback last fall. Brown and George were both first-team All-SEC choices last fall and George was a third round selection in this past April's NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. This is a young unit that has only two seniors, neither of whom have seen significant playing time in their collegiate careers.

As a redshirt freshman Alexander moved into the starting unit midway during last season and started each of the final six games of the season. He was named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team and also earned honorable mention Freshman All-America honors from the Football News. Alexander was also a special teams star as he led that unit in tackles with 19. True sophomore Robert Cromartie, who missed the last half of spring drills with an elbow injury, played in nine games as a freshman with three starts last fall.

Junior Cedric Warner, who was pushing for a starting role at cornerback last season before suffering a neck injury in late August, which sidelined him for the entire year as well as all of spring practice, is expected back this August. Senior Darnethus Lewis, junior Craig Dudley and redshirt freshmen Marquis Westbrook and Derrick Coker will also continue to compete for prominent roles with this unit. Westbrook moved into Cromartie's top spot at cornerback when Cromartie was sidelined at the midpoint of spring drills with an injury.

True sophomore Lester Norwood, selected the squad's most improved defensive back this spring, is the replacement for Teško Brown at free safety while junior Rod Graddy and sophomore Marquand Manuel will continue to handle it out for the starting nod at strong safety. Norwood played in all 12 games last year as a freshman and when he started the season opener vs. The Citadel, he became the first true freshman to start in the secondary since the 1991 season.

Graddy was the starter in 11 games at strong safety last year but he is facing some tough competition from Manuel, who saw a great deal of duty as a freshman last fall. Graddy was credited with 75 tackles last fall, the third-top total on the squad for a defensive back, while Manuel was credited with 45 defensive tackles and his 12 special teams tackles ranked second on the team. Manuel's 676 total plays last fall ranked first among all defensive backs. Senior Reggie Davis, junior walk-ons Matt McCoun and Chad Filley and redshirt freshmen Todd Johnson will continue to battle for top backup roles at the safety positions. Johnson emerged from that group this spring to garner the top backup role to Norwood at free safety.

Special Teams

This is expected to be an improved aspect of the Gator squad as all of the significant members of last year's unit return.

Junior Jeff Chandler, named Florida's Most Outstanding

Special Teams player last year, returns to handle the place-kicking chores. The walk-on took over all place-kicking chores after the first few games of the 1998 season and responded by connecting on 11 of 15 field goal attempts. David Wasielewski returns to handle the punting chores after averaging 40.4 yards per attempt last year during his true freshman season. He was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team and his 40.4 average ranked fifth-best in the SEC.

One of the most competitive situations this August will be the battles for the top roles as kickoff and punt returners. John Capel, Ben Carroll, Robert Gillespie and Reece Caldwell are just some of the many talented players that will get looks for these positions. Capel averaged 27.4 yards per kickoff return last year, while Carroll averaged 26.5 and Gillespie 21.5. Florida ranked 15th in the nation last year at kickoff returns with a mark of 23.3.

Steve Spurrier calls place-kicker Jeff Chandler among the most improved players on the 1999 team.

Comments on 1999

Steve Spurrier on the Gator Offense

Offensive Line

"We have the experience to be good in the offensive line. Zack Miller is the only player we lost off last year's team, and we have four seniors who have played a lot of ball for us the past three seasons. Camper Carlisle, Ryan Ketch and Cheston Blackhead start the fall on the first team, while Corey Warbrough also has a chance to be a starter. Kenyatta Walker started most of last season as a redshirt freshman at right tackle, and senior Zak Zedalis made a lot of progress at center. Redshirt freshman tackle Mike Heasler was impressive in the spring and will challenge for playing time, or perhaps the starting job in 1999. Hopefully some of the other young players like Ben Brown, Erik Strange, Leon Hines and others will continue to improve."

Receivers

"We expect this group to be much improved over last season. Travis Taylor, who was the MVP in the Orange Bowl game, had an excellent spring. He looks maybe to be our go-to guy—the guy who will get a few more balls thrown his way than the other receivers. Darrell Jackson is next in terms of

"We're really excited about the coming year. We don't have a bunch of preseason all-stars the way we've had some years around here, but I think this will be a team that our fans will really enjoy watching play. I really believe we'll play with a little bit more enthusiasm, maybe a little bit more effort and more smarts than we've done in recent years. If we do that we've got a chance to have a really big season in 1999. We had a productive spring on offense and defense. Offensively, we hope to be able to run the ball more effectively and throw it around like we've done in the past around here. There is a chance we will be talented enough to do that this season. We're excited about the progress of Coach Jon Hoke and the defense he brought with him from Missouri and other places he's coached. I think our players really enjoy playing this style of defense. We think we're going to be very good on defense, the way we've been in the past around here."

— Steve Spurrier

experience, and he improved in the spring. As for the younger receivers, Reche Caldwell, Brian Haugabrook, Steve Shipp and Alex Willis all had good springs. John Capel, our fastest player, missed the spring while running track. Hopefully, he will be able to get back in the competition at this position in the fall. He is a big-play threat. We really think the tight end position has a chance to be the most productive it has been since 1990. Errol Kinney is the leader, but there are a pair of redshirt freshmen—Kirk Wells and Aaron Walker—who are very impressive young prospects.

Running Backs

Improving the running game is obviously one of our priorities. We were 95th in the nation in rushing last year. Redshirt freshmen Earnest Graham and Chuck Marks really did a lot of good things in the spring, and sophomore Robert Gillespie is also in the mix there. Graham is a little bit bigger and more physical. He can make people miss, run through tacklers and make the long run. Marks and Gillespie both have very good open field running ability. Vanner Gooch also did some good things and should be a factor. Our fullbacks are the same as last season: Rod Frazer and Rol Roberts, and we're comfortable with this position."

Jon Hoke on the Gator Defense

Ends

"We moved Derrick Chambers from tackle to end in the spring and that was a very good move for us. It gives us a big, talented fast guy out there on the edge who can make plays. He is a real positive factor for us there. Alex Brown spent a lot of time here in the spring, and he will play that position and outside linebacker. Buck Gurley is another guy in there who was pretty solid in the spring. Anthony Mitchell and Thad Bullard came along at end, also."

Tackles

"Gerard Warren is a good player, a very good player at tackle. We still have work to do with Tommy Moody, Chris Reynolds and Jayme Campbell to give us dependable everyday guys at this position. Chambers and Gurley could also play tackle, if necessary."

Linebackers

"At inside linebacker we were pleased with the progress of Andre Davis. He makes a lot of play consistently. Keith Kelsey, Teddy Sims and Daryl Owens will all be factors this season. At the outside linebacker spot Eugene McCaslin coming over from running back was a big plus. He's got a Doug Johnson is a senior who has shown that he is a very capable quarterback. With Doug rehabilitating an injury he got in the Orange Bowl game, Jesse Palmer got a lot of work in the spring and we think he is also a very capable quarterback. Doug will start fall practice as our first team quarterback. We feel encouraged and comfortable with these two young men playing this position for us. Kevin McKinnon is clearly the third man here, and we have a pair of talented freshmen in Rex Grossman and Chris Stephens."

Quarterbacks

Kicking Game

"Probably one of the most improved players on the team is our kicker Jeff Chandler. He hit his field goals, extra points and kickoffs extremely well in the spring and he appears to be much stronger and more confident. Dave Wasielewski is our number one punter going into fall practice, but he could get a serious challenge from Alan Rhine, a walk-on. There are a lot of possibilities in the return game with John Capel, Bo Camml, Robert Gillespie, Chuck Marks and perhaps Travis Taylor or Reche Caldwell being involved back there."

chance to do some good things and perhaps be a starter. He needs to work on his knowledge and skills of the position over the summer. Alex Brown being able to play end and outside linebacker is another big plus. We were really impressed with Marcus Oquendo-Johnson. He really came in strong and has a chance to be a very productive player for us in his redshirt freshman season. We feel good about him."

Cornerbacks

"Bonnie Alexander played quite a bit in the secondary last season and he seemed to keep going in the spring at corner back. It is unfortunate that Robert Cromartie got hurt early in the spring because we would have liked to have seen him play a little bit more. We did see enough early to make it appear he is going to be a solid corner in time. Marquis Westbrook and Derrick Corker got most of the work and need to continue to improve and get experience. Craig Dudley and Demetrius Lewis also have a chance to get involved and give us some good depth."

Safety

We were very pleased with our safeties position after spring practice. There's a little bit more depth there at safety than there was before, so I feel better about our situation here than I do with the cornerbacks. With Marq and Manuel, Rod Graddy, Les or Norwood, Todd Johnson and Reggie Davis in there we have five guys who can play. These are guys who can run and hit, and they are smart football players that have the ability to make plays. That is a nice combination to have back there."

Coaching

Steve Spurrier Tremendous Achievement

- His 93 victories at Florida ranks as the best win total in the 20th century for a major college coach in his first nine years at a school
- Has coached UF to two National Championship Game appearances (1995 and 1996 seasons) and claimed the 1996 national title
- His 93 wins at Florida since 1990 ranks among the top three win totals in the nation this decade
- He is one of only two coaches in the nation to have his team ranked in the final AP Top 10 Poll in each of the last eight seasons (1991-98)
- He is one of only two coaches in the nation to lead his team to at least nine wins in each of the nine years of this decade (1990-98)
- His 66-9 record in SEC play ranks as the best winning percentage (.880) in conference history
- He is the only coach in SEC history to lead a squad to six straight seasons of 10 or more wins (1993-1998) and one of only two in major college history to achieve that feat
- He is the only coach in SEC history to win eight conference games in a season four straight years (1993-96)
- He is the only coach in SEC history to win at least six conference games in a season for more than six straight years (UF has done this nine consecutive seasons, 1990-98)
- He and the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant are the only coaches in SEC history to win as many as four consecutive league championships (1993-96)
- His five outright SEC titles ('91, '93, '94, '95, '96) ranks as the third-best total in SEC history trailing only "Bear" Bryant's 11 and Ole Miss John Vaught's six
- His 12-year collegiate head coaching record of 113-31-2 ranks as the third-best win percentage (.781) in the nation among active coaches
- He achieved 100 career victories among the six fastest time periods (11th season, 9th game) in collegiate coaching history
- His Gator teams have appeared in the AP Poll 151 of a possible 152 weeks, including each of the past 151 weeks. Since 1990 the Gators have been ranked number one in the polls 25 times, appeared in the top five for 84 weeks and among the nation's top 10 for 129 weeks
- From 1994-97 UF won 25 straight SEC games, the second longest league win streak in conference history. During that time period (1994-97) the Gators also set a SEC record for most consecutive wins (13) at opponent campus stadiums
- Led Florida to five appearances in the SEC Championship Game (1992-96) with four victories (1993-96)
- He has been named "SEC Coach of the Year" five times since 1990 ('90, '91, '94, '95, '96)
- Under his leadership the Gator offense became the only unit in modern college history (since the NCAA started keeping stats in 1937) to score at least 500 points (including bowl games) for four straight years (1993-96). Yale also achieved that distinction from 1886-89 and Michigan from 1903-04

Head Coach Steve Spurrier

When Steve Spurrier was hired as head football coach at the University of Florida in 1990, it isn't likely anyone could have predicted what was going to take place during the decade of the '90s. In his nine seasons at his beloved alma mater, he has led the Gators to a national title, sustained excellence in the highly competitive Southeastern Conference and a highly deserved status as one of the nation's elite programs.

Florida's success under Spurrier in the 1990s has been so spectacular that it has resulted in the Gator program being labeled a "dynasty" by the NCAA in its annual recordbook publication, a rare and elite honor bestowed upon only a few schools in the nation.

On an individual level, he has become the only major collegiate coach in the 20th century to win more than 90 games in his first nine years at a school. He is one of only two major college coaches in the 20th century to win at least 10 games for six consecutive seasons (1993-98).

Prior to his arrival, no Florida team had captured an official Southeastern Conference championship in 56 years as a charter member of the league. Spurrier has joined the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only coach in SEC history to win four straight outright league championships (1993-96). His five outright SEC titles already ranks third best in league history, trailing only Bryant and Ole Miss John Vaught with six.

Spurrier, who led Florida to its first national championship in 1996 in his seventh year at the helm, has posted a tremendous 66-9 record in SEC games over the last nine seasons, a winning percentage of .880 (tops among league schools during this period and the best mark in SEC history for any coach who has reached a minimum of five years in the conference).

Steve Spurrier is the only major college coach in the 20th century to win more than 90 games in his first nine years at a school. Spurrier, the dean of SEC coaches, is also the only coach in SEC history to win at least 10 games for six straight years and one of only two major college coaches this century to achieve that distinction.

When Steve Spurrier was hired as head football coach at the University of Florida in 1990, it isn't likely anyone could have predicted what was going to take place during the decade of the 1990's. In nine seasons at his beloved alma mater, he has led the Gators to a national title, sustained excellence in the highly competitive Southeastern Conference and a highly deserved status as one of the nation's elite programs.

Prior to 1990 only eight Gator teams had ever won nine games in a season and no L.F. team had ever won more than nine games. In nine seasons, Spurrier-coached Gator teams have won at least nine games each year, surpassing that total seven times (1991: 10 wins; 1993: 11; 1994: 10; 1995: 12; 1996: 12; 1997: 10) and 1998 (10). He is the only coach in SEC history to lead a team to at least .50 wins in six consecutive years (1993-98). His overall record of 93-8-1 in the past nine seasons ranks as the third-best win total in college football during the 1990's.

The Gators are one of only two teams in the nation to finish the season ranked in the AP Top Ten Poll in each of the last eight years (1991-98) and one of only three teams in the country to win at least nine games each of the nine seasons of this decade. Prior to his arrival in 1990, Florida had finished a season ranked in the AP Top Ten Poll just three times. Spurrier-coached Gator teams have already achieved that distinction eight times.

Florida has had the SEC's best league record six of the last nine seasons, producing eight bowl appearances including six major bowl appearances, highlighted by a 1995 national championship contest vs. Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl and the 1996 national championship victory over Florida State in the Sugar Bowl.

Florida has won the SEC Eastern Division championship in five of seven years of league divisional play - 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996.

Spurrier's teams have been ranked in the AP national poll in 15 of the 52 weeks he has been the Gator head coach, including the last 131 straight. They have ranked in the Top 10 of the polls in 129 weeks and the top five 84 times. The streak has included a number one ranking in 25 weeks, including the final poll of the 1996 season after an impressive 52-20 win over No. 1 ranked Florida State in the Sugar Bowl.

He is the first coach in Florida history to defeat arch-rival Georgia more than four consecutive seasons (he won seven straight games vs. the Bulldogs from 1990-96).

Spurrier has been voted SEC Coach-of-the-Year five times, 1990, 1991, 1994, 1995 and 1996, an honor he captured in the Atlantic Coast Conference as head coach at Duke University in 1988 and 1989.

His 12-year collegiate head coaching record of 13-31-2 (.781) is the third-best win percentage in the nation among active coaches. He won his 100th collegiate game during the 1997 year in what was his 14th season, 9th game, an achievement that ranks among the sixth fastest time periods to reach the century mark in collegiate coaching history.

In Spurrier's initial season at the Gator helm in 1990, his team went 9-2, finished fifth in the nation on defense and 10th on offense while setting 14 single-season records.

In 1991, the Gators won 10 games for the first time, beating seven league foes by a margin of 226-74 and producing the best conference record in their history (7-0) and the best by any SEC school since 1977.

That team set seven new school records, three SEC marks and finished the season ranked ninth in the nation in total offense and fourth in passing. They led the SEC and were sixth in the nation in rushing defense. The Gators' 5,028 yards of total offense was a school record at that time.

They finished the regular season ranked third in the nation and dropped to seventh after losing to Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl.

In 1992, the young Gator team started the season 1-2 and bounced back to win seven of its last eight games to win the Eastern Division title and advance to the first ever SEC Championship Game. A heartbreaking loss (28-21) to eventual national champion Alabama in that contest was followed by a 27-0 victory over N.C. State in the Gator Bowl for a final record of 9-4 and an AP ranking of 10th.

The 1993 offense set eight SEC records and 15 UF marks while ranking fourth in the nation in scoring (39.3) and passing yards (339.3 ypg). They were seventh in total offense (476.6 ypg) and averaged a TD once every 15 snaps. Defensively, UF was ninth in the nation in rushing defense.

The 1994 offense scored the most points (521) and touchdowns (69) of any team in SEC history, leading the conference and finished second in the nation in scoring average (43.4 ypg). They were fourth in the nation in passing offense with 311 ypg and led the nation in TD passes with 43.

The Gator defense of '94 finished first in the conference and fifth in the nation in rushing defense (84.6 ypg) and 19th overall.

The 1995 season ranked as, then, the most glorious in school history as the Gators posted a 12-1 record (most wins in school history), played for the national championship vs. Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl, finished the season ranked second in the final AP Poll (highest finish in UF history) and won their fourth SEC title in the past five years. Florida joined Alabama as the only school in SEC history to win three consecutive Outright league championships (1993-95). The offense was even better than the record-breaking outfit of 1994 and was arguably the finest in the history of the SEC as it shattered the league record for average total offense per game: the Gators averaged 534 yards per game to break the league record held by the 1970 Auburn offense which averaged 485 yards a contest while also scoring more TDs (74) and points (534) in league history.

Florida's 1996 team went one step further as it captured the school's first national Spurrier's overall SEC win percentage of .880 at Florida (66-9) ranks best for a coach in SEC history and his overall win percentage of .770 (117-31-2) in 12 years at Duke and Florida is third best in the nation among active coaches at the Division I-A level.

"Creating a family atmosphere among the coaches and players is very important. We want an atmosphere where the guys like each other and pull for each other to do well. I think former players should know that, no matter what, they always have a home here. It's nice to belong to a group, a family, a team, and that doesn't have to end when you quit playing here."

Prior to Spurrier's arrival in 1990 the Gators had never won more than nine games in a season. UF has won at least 10 games seven times under Spurrier, including each of the last six years, an achievement that ranks among the three longest streaks in that category for a school in the 20th century.

championship and tied the school record for most wins in a season with its 12-2 mark. The squad capped the crown with an impressive 52-20 victory over arch-rival Florida State in the Sugar Bowl. UF became only the second school in SEC history to capture a fourth consecutive SEC title and fifth in six seasons. The Gators became the first school in SEC history to win eight or more conference games for four consecutive seasons (1993-96). The 1996 offense ranked first in SEC history in average points per game (46.6), first in total touchdowns (76) and first in total points (559). Florida became the first school in the modern era (NCAA stats began in 1937) to register over 500 points in a season for four straight years (1993-96).

In 1997, the Gators posted a 10-2 overall record but failed to win the SEC title for the first time since 1992. The highlight of the year was a dramatic late-morning 32-29 victory over number one ranked Florida State. Its 1998 Florida posted a 10-2 record (7-1 SEC), the ninth straight year of at least nine victories and the sixth straight year of at least 10 wins, an achievement unmatched in SEC history.

Spurrier's teams at Duke (1987-88-89) all led the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense and passing and his Gator team in 1990 did the same. In 1991, 1992 1993, 1995 and 1996 Florida led the league in passing.

Spurrier's offenses recorded the same results at the professional level in the NFL, from 1983-85 with the Tampa Bay Bandits. The 1984 team was the first in pro history to produce a 4,000-yard passer and two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. Quarterback John Reaves again passed for over 4,000 yards in 1985, one of only four QB's in pro history to accomplish this feat in back-to-back seasons.

The 1966 Heisman Trophy winner as Florida's quarterback, Spurrier started his coaching career as the Gators quarterback coach in 1978. In 1979, he served as offensive coordinator and QB coach at Georgia Tech. and served in that same capacity at Duke from 1980-82 before moving to the USFL in his first head coaching job with the Bandits in 1983. He returned to Duke as head coach in 1987 and produced that school's first ACC championship in 24 years in 1989.

Spurrier became the only Heisman Trophy winner to coach another Heisman recipient when Danny Wuerffel claimed the nation's most prestigious award in 1996.

Spurrier was born on April 20, 1945 in Miami Beach, Fla., son of Presbyterian minister Graham Spurrier and his wife Marjorie. The family moved to Johnson City, Tennessee when Steve was 2 years old.

At Science Hill H.S. in Johnson City, he was all-state in football, basketball and baseball and prep All American in football in 1962. His baseball team won two straight state titles and in three seasons of pitching, he never lost a game.

At Florida, he guided the Gators to two major bowls in three seasons, eight come from-behind wins in the final quarter and a glorious period still remembered fondly by Florida fans.

In the Sugar Bowl game following the 1965 season, Spurrier set six passing and total offense records and became the only player from the losing team to be voted the game's MVP.

The Auburn game in 1966 was the ultimate in Spurrier's knack of being in the right place at the right time under pressure. Heisman Trophy ballots had gone out the previous week and were due back in the week following. A record Florida Field press corps was in attendance.

Despite one of the greatest performances of his career (27 of 40 passing for 259 yards and one TD, five punts for an average of 46 1/2 yards per kick), the Gators remained tied with Auburn at 27-27 with just over two minutes remaining and had to attempt a field goal on fourth and long.

Spurrier took the responsibility for hitting the longer 40-yard effort, although he had not kicked a field goal since the opener that season against Northwestern. He kicked it through for a dramatic 30-27 victory.

Joe Durso of the New York Times called Spurrier a "Real-life Frank Menzies." John Logue of the Atlanta Journal wrote: "Spurrier, with his hands tied behind his back and facing a firing squad, would be favored to escape."

He was the first round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 1967 and played 10 years in the NFL, nine with the 49ers and one with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Steve and Terri Spurrier met while UF students and were married on September 14, 1965, before his senior season in 1966 at Florida. They now have four children: daughters Mrs. Lisa King and Mrs. Amy Moody and sons Steve, Jr., who is an assistant coach at the University of Oklahoma, and Scotty. They also have three grandsons, Trey King, Davis Graham King, and Jake Moody.

"I really liked playing for Coach Spurrier and I'm so happy he has had so much success. He's a wide-open coach. You want to play for a guy like Coach Spurrier who is willing to do anything at any moment and a lot of players like him because he's up front and honest. He's going to say the first thing that comes in your mind, whether it's good or bad. That's how you want people to be with you. He really tells it like it is."

Defensive System

Attack, Attack, Attack

"I t is a tremendous opportunity and privilege to be the defensive coordinator at the University of Florida, a school that is unquestionably one of the elite programs in the nation. Such a rich defensive tradition has been created here and there is a tremendous appreciation at Florida for the importance and value of championship level defense. To be a champion you must play great defense and every one associated with the Gator program is very dedicated to achieving that.

Defensive players at Florida must appreciate and understand that they have an obligation to uphold the pride and tradition that has been established on the defensive side of the football at this university. Over the years, 50 different players have earned All-America honors. There have been 11 first team All-SEC and two players have been named the National Defensive Player of the Year and 14 Gators have been first round draft selections by the NFL teams while 63 local Gator defensive players have played in the NFL. Excellence is expected and demanded of anyone who plays or coaches defense at UF and we are all expected to uphold this sparkling tradition.

We play an attacking defense with multiple looks built to stop the run first and forcing the offense into throwing the football. Our ultimate goal in everything we do is to create confusion and disrupt the timing of the offense.

In our system the defensive men are penetrating, trying to play on the offensive side of the line of scrimmage. The line backers will crowd the line of scrimmage and an player any one or all back into coverage. In the secondary, the safeties will be involved with run support and the corners will play a variety of man to man coverages.

Our defense will attack by penetrating upfront. We will create different eight man looks at the line of scrimmage with the goal of creating confusion for opponents blocking schemes and forcing the offense to adjust multiple looks and thus limiting what they can do. We want to swarm to the ball, forcing the quarterback to throw on our terms and not his terms and time.

The use of different eight man front looks will be designed to stop the run first while playing man coverage on the outside. By penetrating and stripping the run we want to force quarterbacks into making poor decisions in the throwing game. That type of scenario will allow us to potentially force turnovers and get the ball back into the hands of the offense.

In this defense, we want committed players who have tremendous pride and are willing to sacrifice to be one of the best they can be in and off the field. If we have these type of people on the field, we will continue to build on Florida's rich defensive tradition.

Jon Hoke
Defensive Coordinator

"Our ultimate goal in everything we do is to create confusion and disrupt the timing of the offense... We will create different eight-man looks at the line of scrimmage with the goal of creating confusion for opponent blocking schemes and forcing the offense to adjust to multiple looks and thus limiting what they can do."

Jon Hoke

Gator Defensive Coordinator Jon Hoke has 17 years of collegiate coaching experience on the defensive side of the football.

"Defensively, we want to develop a characteristic of being an aggressive, physical team which swarms to the football with the goal of turning it over to our offense. Obviously, team speed is a high priority. We want to be fundamentally sound but willing to take calculated, aggressive moves to disrupt offenses. I think the players who are involved in this defensive scheme can be productive and have fun playing the game."

Steve Spurrier

"Big Plays" Are A Goal Gator Defense

Placing pressure on the quarterback is a major goal for the Gator defense. In much of the past three seasons, Florida has led the SEC in QB sacks and its SB ranks in 1997 set a school record.

Florida was the only school in the SEC in 1998 to rank among the nation's top 10 teams in total defense, rush defense, pass efficiency defense and scoring defense and was one of only five teams nationally to make that claim.

"This attacking defensive scheme that Coach Spurrier wants has been a big hit with the players. It's a fun scheme to play because it forces the offense to make plays. The scheme is very aggressive and intense and its greatest attribute is that it will force more turnovers if players carry out roles and responsibilities. This is a team game and if the defense can create more turnovers, that means more opportunities for the offense."

Lawrence Wright, 1996 Thorpe Award recipient as the nation's top defensive back.

"What we are doing now in Florida fits our style and makes advantage of our athleticism and speed."

Johnny Rutledge, one of two semifinalists for the 1997 and 1998 Bilezikian Award as the nation's top linebacker.

"This is a system and scheme that is very exciting."

"It is based on always attacking the offense and that breeds an attitude of confidence and aggressiveness that the players really like."

Anthony Lett, 1995 & 1996 All-SEC Cornerback, Semifinalist in 1996 for Football News' National Defensive Player of the Year Award.

"This system is so much fun to play. It is fun to have the challenge of playing man-to-man and bump-and-run all over the field. If you are a true competitor, this is the type of scheme you love to play. It's exciting to play and it showcases your skills."

Fred Weary, All-American defensive back and one of three finalists for the 1997 Thayer Award.

Linebackers Johnny Rutledge (left) and Jason Kitchens (right) were two of five Gator defensive players selected in the first three rounds of the 1998 NFL Draft, the most defensive players selected from one school in the nation in the top three rounds of the most recent draft.

"This is a defense players want to play. We want to make things happen. We are the ones doing the attacking, not the other way around."

DT Reggie McCreary, 1999 NFL first-round draft selection.

"This attacking defensive scheme is everything it was built-up to be and then some."

DE Chance, All-American Defensive Tackle and a 1998 Lombardi Trophy semifinalist.

Balance and Diversity Are Goals Offensive System

"We believe in an offense with the balance of passing and running, and in no particular order. We try to get to the best run or pass available for the situation and for the defense we face on each play."

Steve Spurrier

The Gamecocks' system has established 28 SEC national records since 1994 and 55 school records this decade.

A lot of defensive coaches in college football are trying to solve the problems that his offense creates, and they don't do it very often. Clearly Steve Spurrier is one of the finest offensive coaches and strategists in all of football.

Marty Edman, Edman

Head Coach, Kansas City Chiefs (1989-91)

The Steve Spurrier passing system is years ahead of modern science in timing.

Mike Lopresti, USA Today

Spurrier's offensive genius not only commands national respect, but it inspires confidence in his players.

Sporting News

Spurrier has FIVE offensive minds. He is the master of the unexpected and he is the master of creating mismatches. Nobody does it better.

Barry Benishin, former CBS-TV College Football Analyst and now the Director of Player Personnel for the San Francisco 49ers

Spurrier's system is the modern college football has never, standing out like a computer among savans.

Tom Ithman, ESPN Magazine

Spurs does a great job of spreading defense and attacking average, and a superior job of going deep into the passing game. Nobody does as good a job as they (the Spurs) do.

Mike Gervall, Head Coach, St. Louis Rams former ABC-TV College Football Analyst

Since 1990 under Steve Spurrier, 15 quarterbacks have thrown for 100-plus yards. 55 times while QB has thrown for 300-plus yards 48 times.

More than half of the 57 coaches who responded to a 1995 premiere issue of Sunday poll voted him (Spurrier) the best offensive mind in college football.

Sports Illustrated

Florida was and is a football game that is exciting like great basketball, challenging and opponent to match just breaks.

Tim Layden, Sports Illustrated

"The best quarterback coach in college football is Steve Spurrier. He is a guy doing special things with his quarterback."

Mike Givens, ESPN College Football Analyst

"Steve Spurrier is the best quarterback coach in all of football - pro, college, junior high, little league, anywhere. Steve Spurrier is, by a nose, the best offensive coach in the country."

Joe Corry, ESPN College Football Analyst

"Spurrier is every bit as much a quarterback today as when he won the 1955 Heisman Trophy as Florida. The high-flying Gators attack is all his offense. He knows what to do when the pocket is crumbling and options are through there are covered. That's one of the reasons why Spurrier has had five quarterbacks who were first coaches, whether it was in the USFL with Mike, or in Gainesville. He played the position and he understands how to translate his experience into the mind of the passer."

Michael Bradley, Bob Coleman, 1996 College Football

"Quarterbacks and receivers come and go, but as long as Spurrier is on the sideline calling his ball players, the Gators will write fear in any defense."

When the Hilliard (left) and Reidel Anthony (right) were both selected in the opening round of the 1997 NFL Draft it marked the first time in the history of the draft since the late 1960's that two wide receivers from the same school were chosen in the first round of the draft. They are two of eight Gator receivers who have earned All-American recognition in the 1990's and two of nine Gator wide receivers drafted by NFL teams this decade.

Running Backs Have Stood Out This Decade

Florida has rightfully gained a reputation as one of the nation's top passing teams, but its running backs have also achieved a great deal of notoriety.

■ During the 1990's the Gators are 77-1 when they outrush their opponent and 50-1 when a back rushes for 100 yards.

■ Florida scored 25 rushing touchdowns in 1996, tying the school record for most touchdowns in a season.

■ During the 1990's the Gators have had a back rush for 100 yards more times (54) than their quarterbacks have thrown for 300 yards (40).

■ From 1960-89 Florida had four 1,000-yard rushers. Since 1990 under Steve Spurrier there have been three 1,000-yard seasonal rushers: Emmitt Rhett in 1991 and 1993, and Fred Taylor in 1997, in the last nine seasons.

■ During the 1990's Emmitt Rhett (1990-93) and Fred Taylor (1994-97) became two of the four Gator backs in school history to rush for over 3,000 career yards.

■ Emmitt Rhett led the SEC in rushing in 1991 (1,109 yards) and 1993 (1,280 yards). In 1992 he was the only back in the nation to rush for over 500 yards AND catch at least 55 passes.

■ Rhett, who completed his career as the SEC's third-top all-time rusher with 4,163 yards, became the first player in NCAA Division I-A history to rush for over 4,100 yards AND catch 50 or more passes.

■ Fred Taylor joined Emmitt Smith as the only Gators to ever open a season with five straight 100-yard games when he accomplished that feat in the first five games of 1997. Taylor had 14 career 100-yard games, tied for third-best at UF, while his 31 career rushing touchdowns also ranks third-best at Florida.

■ Fred Taylor became just the fourth player in Gator history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a single season when he gained 1,292 yards in 1997.

■ Taylor rushed 43 times for 234 yards in the 1995 Citrus Bowl versus Penn State, the first and second-best totals, respectively, in those categories in school history.

■ Elijah Williams averaged 7.5 yards per carry in 1995, the best average in school history for a back with at least 100 carries.

Fred Taylor, the 1998 AFC Rookie of the Year after being a first-round selection in the NFL Draft, rushed for over 1,000 yards in his Gator career.

When Emmitt Rhett completed his Gator career in 1993 he had become the first back in major college history to rush for over 4,100 yards and catch at least 150 passes.

Did You Know That Since 1990:

- UF is 72-1 when it outrushes its opponent.
- UF is 51-4 when a back rushes for 100 or more yards in a game.
- UF is 58-2 when it rushes for at least 150 yards in a game.
- UF is 83-4 when it rushes for at least 100 yards in a game.

- Jason Odom became the first lineman in the SEC to win the league's Jacobs Blocking Trophy

"I think the one reason most players enjoy this offense is that everyone is involved in it. It is not designed to highlight one running back or one wide receiver. We spread it out to include everyone, and we recognize the importance of the offensive linemen in helping it work."

Steve Spurrier

in back-to-back years, 1994-95 since the early 1950's. He was also the 10th lineman in SEC history to win the honor twice.

Football

A Tradition of Excellence

In the ever-changing world of collegiate athletics, the tradition of excellence has remained constant.

When the SEC was formed in 1933, college football was still in its infancy. Numbers on uniforms were not yet mandatory and helmets were optional. If there were any rules, they were simply suggestions. The teams were penalized five yards.

One year later, in 1934, before the advent of the Associated Press and United Press International polls, an SEC team, Alabama, was named a national football champion by four rating services - Dunkel, Houtgate, Polling and Wooten.

The SEC began play in 1933 with 13 teams, 10 of which continue to play today in the league. Only Georgia Tech, Tulane and Iowa were dropped from the SEC since then and two schools - South Carolina and Mississippi State - have left the SEC.

In 1934, the SEC was the first to make the Southeastern Conference a leader in college football. SEC statistics are some of the most accurate in the nation.

From 1933 to 1993, the SEC has won 102 times. Ole Miss and Miss State have battled 45 times. Kentucky and Tennessee have played 94 times and Tennessee and Vanderbilt have met 92 times. And the SEC has produced 11 national champions in football, 10 in basketball and 10 in baseball.

Winning on and off the field is another SEC trademark. Since 1951 SEC teams have won 14 national championships, including Tennessee's last season. The 12 schools currently in the SEC have appeared in 292 post-season bowl games, the most of any conference in the country. The SEC has posted a winning non-conference record every year since 1933 with the exception of one season (1979).

Off the field, 1,076 football players have made the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the 1990s. The SEC has had 20 of its own football student-athletes named to the Academic All-America first team since 1954. And last season Georgia's Matt Stinchcomb was named the GTE Academic All-American of the Year.

The NCAA Recognition Scholarship given to student-athletes who maintain a cumulative 3.0 grade point average during their collegiate careers and perform with distinction in varsity football has been awarded to 63 former SEC gridiron standouts.

What will the 1999 season bring to the Southeastern Conference? The SEC will pack SEC stadiums in record numbers to watch exciting college football and conference events will enjoy a record number of fans. It will be another great year in SEC football in 1999.

Notes

The SEC has recorded the largest total attendance figure of any conference in the nation. In 1998, over five million fans passed through the turnstiles at SEC stadiums. A total of 5,059,514 fans attended 73 games in 1998, an average of 69,000 fans per game. The nation's SEC stadiums were filled to an average of 99.64 percent of capacity for each home game in 1998, highest in the nation.

The SEC distributed approximately $61.2 million to the 12 schools in the conference for their sharing plans for the 1997-98 fiscal year. The figure is the highest in league history. The money is generated from football television, bowls, SEC Football Championship Game, basketball television, the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and NCAA Championships.

For the fourth straight season in 1999, CBS will be the national network for SEC football. CBS will televise a minimum number of 12 games per year through the year 2000. The network will also carry SEC men's and women's basketball games. The SEC and CBS have agreed through the 2000-2001 season. The new agreement will expand CBS Sports' current SEC football commitments and provide exclusive national network broadcasts of SEC home games throughout the season.

The SEC was the first to develop the conference championship football game on the NCAA Division I-A level in 1992. The 8th SEC Football Championship Game will be played on December 4 at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The game will again be televised nationally by ABC. Since its inception, the SEC Championship Game has been played in front of sellout crowds and an average television rating of 8.5, making it one of the most watched college football games in the nation.

In its seven years of existence, the SEC Championship Game has put five teams in the National Championship Game. Three of those teams won the national title: Alabama in 1992, Florida in 1996 and Tennessee last season.

The SEC will send at least seven of its teams to post-season bowls in 1999. The conference champion will be part of the Bowl Championship Series, which includes the Rose, Sugar, Orange and Fiesta Bowls. The CollegeSA Football Championship has the SEC's second selection while the Cotton, Outback and Peach Bowls has the third through fifth places of SEC teams. The Independence and Music City Bowls will have the sixth and seventh choices in SEC teams in no particular order.

The SEC was 27.0-75.0 in non-conference games last season, third in the nation. In the 1990s, the SEC is 277-96-5 (.739) in non-conference contests, which is tops in the nation. In 14 of the last 19 seasons, no league has posted a better non-conference regular season winning percentage than the SEC.

Five SEC teams are among the top 10 winningest programs in the 1990s: Florida, Tennessee, Auburn, Auburn and Georgia. The Big 12 Conference is the only other league that has as many winning programs during this decade (5). Also, 20 times the SEC has had its teams in the AP Top 10

Roy Kramer
Commissioner

Final poll - the most of any conference in the nation.

The SEC went an NCAA-record eight teams to post-season bowls in 1998. Three times previously the SEC has won the national title.

post-season play and three other bracketed teams from the SEC have played in post-season bowls. In the 1990s, SEC teams have been in bowl games 50 times and have won 30 of 100, a conference-best.

The SEC has dominated the AP Top Ten poll during the 1990s. The SEC has had its teams in the AP Top Ten 20 times since the 1990 season. The Big 12 is second with 16. The SEC has had at least two of its teams finish in the final AP Top Ten every year since 1991.

The SEC is three national champions and the second-highest for any conference in the 1990s. The Big 12 has won four titles this decade. However, the SEC is the only conference to have three different fourth claim national titles in the 90s: Alabama, Tennessee and Florida won national titles this decade, showing the depth of quality in the SEC.

SEC Commissioner Roy Kramer stands with College Football Coach Sam Wyche, former SEC Commissioner, after the 1998 SEC Championship Game.

Series and Game Notes

The Florida Georgia series is one of the longest and most storied in college football. The two schools have met 65 previous times, more than any other opponent in college football history. Every game of the series from 1913-93 was held in Jacksonville. This year's game is its fourth year back in Jacksonville after a seven year stint (1914-20) at the school's campus stadium as the Gulf Bowl. The 1994 game at Alltel Stadium was renamed the National Football League Jacksonville Jaguars Florida game. The 1995 game in Athens, the first in the series since 1912, held at the Georgia stadium. The 1996 meeting in Georgia was the first since 1916. The annual meeting was held on Florida's campus.

The two schools first met in 1913. They have had every season since 1926, with the exception of the 1945 season when Florida did not field a team. Since 1913, 5 games, this annual contest has been decided by seven or fewer points. 18 times, it has been in sight of the last minute, but only 10 of the previous 15 seasons. Florida's best winning streak of success against the Bulldogs is six games, dating from 1913-1918. The only season in which Georgia won the series is also seven games, 1914-1920, and 1944-46.

Series and Game Notes

Florida brings an eight game winning streak in the series to this year's meeting at Florida Field. The two Eastern Division foes meet for the first time with Florida heading a 1-0 edge in the last 24 games between the sides.

Florida and Vanderbilt were both charter members of the SEC when it began play in 1932, but the two schools haven't met until 1985 with Vanderbilt posting a 1-0 win in the initial meeting which was played in Knoxville. Since that game the Commodores are 0-4 in Florida series. A tie in 1958 is the only time the two teams have met in a conference setting.

1998 Gator Review

An SEC Record Sixth Straight 10-Win Year

Florida won all six home games in '98 and stretched its winning streak at "The Swamp" to 27 consecutive games, currently the longest home win streak in major college football!

Squad Notes

Team Achievements

- Set a new SEC mark for consecutive 10 win seasons with its sixth straight (1992-98). The previous record was held by Alabama with 10 or more wins five straight years from 1977-78.
- Finished in the Top 10 of the final polls (5th AP, 6th USA Today/ESPN) for the eighth straight season. UF and FSU are the only schools in the nation that have finished in the top 10 of the final AP Poll in each of the last eight seasons (1991-98).
- Finished in the Top Five (5th Associated Press Poll) for the fourth straight year (1995-98), an achievement matched by only one other school (Florida State).
- Won a bowl game for a third consecutive season for the first time in UF history.
- Won nine or more games for the ninth straight season, the second best such mark in SEC history (Alabama won nine-plus games for straight seasons from 1971-81).
- Nine or more wins for the ninth straight year makes Florida (along with Florida State and Nebraska) one of only three schools in the nation to win nine or more each season this decade.
- Posted a school-record fourth straight perfect 6-0 record at home.
- Stretched UF's home winning streak to 27 games, now the longest home win streak in the nation.
- Posted a 7-1 record in SEC play, stretching UF's SEC record to nine straight years of posting at least six conference wins. Prior to UF's current nine-year streak the prior SEC record for most consecutive seasons of six plus league wins was six by Auburn from 1967-68.

- Earned a bowl game appearance for a school-record eighth straight year.

Team Notes

- Florida was one of only three teams (along with Kansas State and Ohio State) to rank in the Top 15 in the nation in final 1998 NCAA statistics in both total offense (4th) and total defense (9th).
- Florida started an amazing 42 different players during the season, 23 players started at least one game on offense and 14 on defense.
- Florida posted a minus-nine figure in the turnover margin during the regular season - 12 turnovers - 17 fumbles lost and 15 interceptions, while forcing 24 turnovers - 10 fumbles and 13 interceptions - a figure that ranked 10th for 1998 in the nation in that category. In 1997, UF posted a plus-two mark in turnover margin.
- Florida's 17 fumbles lost ranked as the third-highest total in the nation. BYU and Oregon State tied for the most in the nation with 20 fumbles lost. In 1997 the Gators lost only eight fumbles the entire season.
- Prior to 1998 Steve Spurrier teams at Florida averaged 9.6 fumbles lost per year (1970-97). The 1998 team nearly doubled that average with 17 fumbles lost during the season.

Schedule Notes

- Florida played five teams (Tennessee, LSU, Georgia, Florida State, Syracuse) that ranked in the top 11 of the polls at some point during the season. Only one of those five games (LSU) was played at Florida Field.

- Florida played eight teams • Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama, LSU, Auburn, Georgia, Florida State, Syracuse) that were ranked in the Top 25 Polls at some point during the 1998 season.
- Florida's only two losses came in the two games that played for the National Championship (20-17 in overtime at Tennessee and 21-12 at Florida State).

- The Gator offense in '98 scored 44 touchdowns and the average drive time for those TDs was just 1:41. The unit scored 26 TDs in two minutes or less and 19 of the 44 TDs were scored in three minutes or less. Thirty-two of UF's 44 TDs came on drives that lasted five plays or less.
- Florida had 60 pass plays on the season that went for 20 or more yards but only 12 rushing plays that went for that distance.
- Despite throwing the ball a great deal (417 pass attempts) UF lost the SEC in fewer quarterback sacks allowed with only 17 in games.

- A negative aspect of the Gator offense in 1998 was turnovers. UF's offense was credited with 29 turnovers: 14 fumbles lost and 15 interceptions. (The Gator defense lost two fumbles and the special teams lost one.) In 1997 Florida's offense had 26 turnovers in 41 games: 8 interceptions and eight fumbles lost.

- Florida's offense had only eight lost fumbles through the entire game regular season in '98 but it lost 4 fumbles (the defense also lost two fumbles and the special teams the fumble during UF's win in the early in the '98 season).

The Gators won 10 games for an SEC record sixth straight year, an achievement that also ranks among the top three streaks in that category in major college history. The Gators finished in the top 10 of the polls for an eighth straight season (one of only two schools in the nation to achieve that distinction) and won a bowl game for a school-record third straight season.

- Florida scored only 31 points in the fourth quarter during the season. In 1997 UF scored 98 points in the final period.
- My UF's standards of the 1990's: the '98 Gator offense struggled inside the red zone. That was especially true in SEC games where UF was in the red zone 34 times, scoring at a rate of only 67.6% (23/34) with a touchdown just 38% of the time (13 of 34). Here is how the 1998 Gator offense compared in this category vs. other Spurrier-coached Gator teams this decade:

- three previous seasons (1995-97), including 15 in 1996 to do a UF single-season record, the '98 Gators rushed for only nine such drives, a figure that ranked as the lowest in the Spurrier era (1990-'88). The previous low in that category for a UF team that decade was 12 rushing touchdowns in 1992. In fact, UF's nine scores on the ground in 1998 was the lowest for a Gator squad since 1979, when UF's 6-10-1 team rushed for only two touchdowns the entire season.
- The Gators started a different

The 1998 Gator defense led the SEC in every major statistical category, ranking first in rush defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense. Florida's defensive unit was one of only five in the country in 1998 to finish the year ranked among the nation's top 10 in rush defense, pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and total defense.

- Over the last nine years (1990-98), UF has had a running back eclipse the 100-yard plateau 55 times, while a UF quarterback has thrown for 100-plus yards 40 times.

Miscellaneous Notes

- Has thrown for at least one TD pass in 101 of the last 104 games and 84 of the last 86. Has thrown for 200 or more yards in 77 of the past 104 games. Since 1990 UF has thrown for 100 or more yards in a game in 67 of its 112 total contests. Prior to 1990 the Gators threw for 100 or more yards in a game just 14 times in the previous 83 seasons of play (1906-89).
- Scored 30 or more points in 54 of the past 76 games.

Inside the Numbers Since 1990

- 63-4 record when it rushes for at least 100 yards in a game and just 10-14-1 when field under 100 yards.
- 51-1 when a back rushes for 100 or more yards in a game.
- 41-1 record when UF rushes for more than 50 yards AND passes for more than 250 yards in a game.
- 69-6 when UF scores first and 24-12-1 when opponent scores first.
- 72-1 when UF outrushes its opponent and just 21-17-1 when it is out rushed.

- UF has been out rushed in 17 of the 18 games it has lost since 1990.

Held opponents to 286.6 yards per game (90.7 rushing and 195.9 passing), ninth-best in the nation and first in the SEC.

Yielded an average of 14.6 points per game, eighth-best in the nation and first in the SEC.

Allowed just 90.7 rushing yards per game, fourth-best in the nation and first in the SEC.

Yielded an average of just 2.5 yards per rush.

Opponent QBs posted a 100.45 pass efficiency rating, seventh-best in the nation and first in the SEC.

Foes converted on only 28% of their third down conversions (53 of 189).

Yielded an average of just 4.1 yards per play.

Yielded an average of 15 first downs per game.

Held opponents to three and out 44.7% of the time (72-161).

- The 1998 Gator defense led the SEC in virtually every statistical category, ranking first in rushing defense (90.7 ypg), pass efficiency defense (100.45 rating), total defense (286.6 ypg), scoring defense (14.6 ppg), third down conversions (28% - 53 for 189) and fewest first downs allowed (163). UF's 39 quarterback sacks tied with Arkansas for tops in the league.
- UF was one of only five schools (along with Florida State, Kansas State, Ohio State and Wisconsin) to rank in the top 10 nationally in all four national defensive rankings (first in total defense, fourth in rushing defense, seventh in pass efficiency defense, eighth in scoring defense) in the final NCAA statistics.

- The Gator defense held nine of 12 opponents (The Citadel, Northeast Louisiana, Alabama, LSU, Auburn, Georgia, Vanderbilt, South Carolina, Syracuse) to 14 or less points.

- The Gator defense allowed opponents to score inside the 20-65% (15-23) of the time, but only allowed touch downs inside the red zone 15% (18-23) of the time.

- The Gators allowed only six rushing touchdowns during the season, the fourth-best seasonal mark in school history. The 1984 team allowed three rushing touchdowns, while the 1988 and 1990 teams yielded four rushing touchdowns. The six rushing touchdowns allowed in '98 was the best seasonal performance since the 1984 season (3).

- Florida started 19 different players on defense during the season. DL-8, LB-3, DB-8.

- A testament to the quality of the UF defensive play in 1998 is the fact that it yielded just 32 points to opponents following 32 Catastrophes.
- Since the start of the 1996 season the Gator defense has held its respective opponent to less than 50 net rushing yards 16 times in 37 games. In 1998 three opponents were held below 50: NE Louisiana, Kentucky, Alabama.
- The Florida defense allowed just 31 points in the fourth quarter all season.
- One of the goals of the Gator defense is "Big Plays" in the form of tackles behind the line of scrimmage, pass deflections, forced 3rd down, forced fumbles, fumble recoveries, interception returns. In 34 regular season games since 1996 the Gators have posted a 24-1 record when the defensive unit registers 21 or more "Big Plays" and only a 5-4 record when chalk ing up 20 or less "Big Plays."
- One hundred eighty-six (86) of the 1993 total rushing plays (47.3%) against the '98 Gator defense were for one yard or less.
- UF's defense held opponent offenses to an average of only 4.87 plays per drive during 1998.
- The defense forced 21 total turnovers: 13 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries. The 1997 unit was credited with 28 turnovers (18 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries). The '997 unit was credited with 284 "Big Plays" whereas the '98 squad was credited with 264 "Big Plays."
- Each different players on the '98 Gator defensive line have varied games. Ed Chester-29, Reggie McGraw-28, Tim Boeschamp-26, Willie Colson-23, Derrick Chambers-5, Anthony Mitchell-4, Buck Gurley-3, Gerard Warren-2. The total career starts for each listed player includes bowl games.
- In 1998, UF yielded 90.7 rushing yards per game fourth-best in the nation and first in the SEC. UF led the

- SEC in rushing defense for the sixth time in the last 10 years and ranked among the nation's top 10 teams in that category for the seventh time in the past 10 years. The Gators allowed an average of just 70.7 yards in '97 second-best in the nation and a figure that ranked as the best seasonal mark in school history.
 - UF had 39 sacks in '98 tied for tops in the SEC with Arkansas. The Gators led the conference in sacks in each of the 1996 and '997 seasons. The Gators set a new school record with 50 quarterback sacks in 1997, an average of 4.5 per game, in leading the SEC in quarter back sacks for the second straight year. The Gators led the conference in QB sacks with 48 in 1996, an average of 4.0 per game. Alabama holds the league record with 54 sacks in 1988.
 - Florida has 13 defensive scores over the last five seasons (1994-'98), including a school-record six two-point conversions and four fumble returns in 1996. UF's four fumble returns for TDs in 1996 tied a NCAA record. A single season record. Here is a breakdown of defensive touchdowns since Steve Spurrier's arrival in 1990.

Game Recaps

Game 1

FLORIDA 49
The Citadel 10

September 5, 1998.
 Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field, Gainesville, Fla.
 Attendance: 85,061

On opening day of the 92nd season of football at the University of Florida, quarter back Jesse Palmer, making his first career start at home, and tailback Terry Jackson, playing for the first time since a season ending knee injury last September, lead a Gator attack that compiles nearly 600 yards of total offense as UF wins its 22nd straight game at Florida Field. The win moves UF within one of tying the school record 23 consecutive home winning streak from 1970-91.

Palmer goes 18-for-28 for 101 yards on the night for four touchdowns, including three near-perfect TD strikes to Florida receivers streaking down the sideline.

Jackson rushes for 127 yards on 10 carries, his first 100-yard regular season affair since his freshman season in 1995. The senior tailback runs for two touchdowns, both over 20 yards, including a 26-yard scamper in the third quarter. Wide receiver Travis Taylor catches two touchdown receptions from Palmer while Nafis Karim and Darrell Jackson each grab six-pointers from Palmer as well.

The scoring leads off on the first drive of the game as Palmer goes three-for-three with passes of 10 and 21 yards and a 12 yard TD bomb in 1:35 to Darrell Jackson for the first touchdown of the season.

Senior linebacker Johnny Rutledge sets the tone for the Gators on defense with seven tackles, two for Citadel losses, and a three yard sack. Despite a hard fought battle in time of possession in favor of The Citadel, the Florida defense allows only two Bulldog drives into Florida territory in the second half.

The Bulldog series come on a 27-yard field goal in the first quarter after Palmer fumbles the ball at the Florida 14 yard line and on a 65 yard touchdown drive to start the second half.

Other Game Notes

■ Florida improves to 27-1 in its last 28 season openers and is a perfect 9-0 under Steve Spurrier in season openers since his arrival in 1990. The Gators are 9-8 24 all-time in season openers including a 50-0 mark in season openers held in Gainesville. UF is now 31-0 when scoring 28 or more points in a season opener.

■ Florida won its 22nd consecutive home game at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, one short of the school record of 23. UF won a school-record 23 consecutive games from 1990 to 1993.

■ The Gators are now 57-0 against unranked teams in the Steve Spurrier era and 21-1 versus non-conference foes at The Swamp since 1990. UF is 69-0 since 1990 when holding opponents to 21 points or less.

■ UF is now 46-1 since 1990 when a back rushes for over 100 yards.

■ Free safety Lester Norwood is just the second true freshman in the Spurrier era to start a season opener (OT Reggie Green in 1992) was the other. He is also just the second true freshman ever to start a game on the defensive secondary during the Spurrier era (Larry Kennedy in 1991) was the other.

■ Nafis Karim had his first 100-yard career receiving game with six catches for 101 yards. Karim had only 28 total yards in nine games last season.

Game 2

FLORIDA 42
Northeast Louisiana 10

September 12, 1998.
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field, Gainesville, Fla.
Attendance: 85,228

Behind a suffocating run defense, Florida ties a school record with its 23rd consecutive home win this one a 42-0 victory over Northeast Louisiana. The Gator defense steals the show from the offense as the Indians make it across midfield only three times in the game and holds the Indian ground game to minus 36 yards rushing, the second-best single game mark in school history (the school record is +561 against Arkansas in 1997). Northeast Louisiana averages only 11.4 yards a drive and goes three-and-out on 11 of their 16 possessions.

Defensive tackle Reggie McGrew, records three tackles for losses totaling 14 yards. Linebackers Mike Peterson and Levan Kearse join in to the tune of 13 tackles and two sacks respectively. On the night, Northeast Louisiana gains only -48 total yards of offense.

The Gators' offense comes out with a bang on their first possession of the ball game for the second game in a row. Tailback Terry Jackson, on the way to his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game, takes the ball on six of Florida's eight plays on the 80 yard drive for the first of two Gator rushing touchdowns on the night.

Although the offense struggles to gain consistency during the game losing three fumbles and two interceptions, Jackson and wideout Travis McGriff both contribute 100-yard nights leading Florida to 533 yards of total offense and 42 points. McGriff catches six passes for a career-high 16 yards including a highlight reel 39-yard touchdown grab and run from quarterback Jesse Palmer to begin the scoring in the second half. Palmer has four touchdown throws on the night including a career-high 65 yard TD toss to Travis Taylor in the second quarter.

Other Game Notes

■ Florida ties a school record with its 23rd consecutive win at home, equalling the mark set from 1990-93 when UF ran off 23 consecutive wins at home. It is the second longest current home win streak in the nation (Nebraska, 44).

■ The defensive effort marks the third time in the last two seasons the UF defense has held an opponent to negative rushing yards in a single game (others: 56 vs. Arkansas in 1997 and 28 vs. Auburn in 1997).

■ The UF defense has held its respective opponent to less than 50 net rushing yards in 14 of the 27 games since the start of the 1996 season. Since 1990, the Gators are now 5-1 when holding an opponent to less than 100 net rushing yards.

■ Florida is now 58-0 against unranked teams since 1990...70-0 when holding opponents to 21 points or less since 1990. UF is now 54-1 when it rushes for 150 or more yards in a game since 1990...The Gators are 40-0 when UF rushes for more than 150 yards and paces for more than 250 yards in a game since 1990.

Game 3

Tennessee... 20
Florida... 17 (OT)

September 19, 1998,
Neyland Stadium,
Knoxville, Tenn.
Attendance: 107,653

It seems only fitting that the first overtime game in both Florida's and Tennessee's history would come when the two heated rivals face one another. In one of the closest and most thrilling games of this conference series, the Florida-Tennessee match-up goes an extra frame as the sixth-ranked Volunteers pull out a 20-17 overtime victory over the second-ranked Gators in Knoxville before over 107,000 people and a national television audience.

Despite an ineffective running game, Jesse Palmer and Doug Johnson rotate at the quarterback position and throw for over 400 yards combined and two touchdowns. This battle, however, revolves around turnovers: five for UF and only one for UT.

As the Gators look to score on their first possession of the third straight game in 1998, they have the ball at the Tennessee three-yard line. Tailback Terry Jackson takes the handoff from Johnson and lunges for the goal line only to get the ball knocked from his hands. Tennessee recovers in the endzone ending the Florida threat. UF gives the ball over four more times (three lost fumbles and an interception) and in all four cases, the turnovers kill drives into Tennessee territory.

Even with the give aways, Florida is in the game all the way to the end. The Gator defense allows Tennessee only 235 yards of total offense and seven first downs, preventing the Volunteers from converting on third down just all the way into the fourth quarter. On the other side of the ball Spurrier switches his QB's every play and gets a 20 yard performance from Palmer and a 199 yard effort from Johnson. Wide receiver Travis McGriff makes the big play of the night for the Florida offense, catching a 70 yard touchdown bomb streaking down the left side line to tie the game at 7. For the night he catches nine passes for 176 yards - a new career high.

Other Game Notes

- The Gators rushed for 13 yards against the Volunteers the third-worst rushing total under Spurrier and the sixth worst of all time.
- The Gators five-game winning streak comes to an end in the series.
- For the first time under Coach Spurrier, the Gators lost a game when holding an opponent to 21 or fewer points. Florida had been 70-0 in the 1990's in that statistical category.
- For the first time in the last nine years in this series, the winning team did not score at least 31 points.
- With four fumbles against Tennessee, UF now stands at minus-10 in the turnover margin after three games. In 1997 the team was plus-two in that category after three games.
- The Gators trailed for the first time this season when Tennessee took a 7-1 lead in the first quarter on Shawn Bryson's 57-yard touchdown run.

• Palmer getting 40 of UF's 79 plays under center, completed each of his first 10 passes.

In a game as wild in the air as Hurricane Georges was in the Gulf Coast, Florida and Kentucky put up over 1000 yards of total offense and 86 points on the score board. A national TV audience and 85,011 fans watch the Gators set a record with their 24th consecutive win at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. It is one of a 51-35 victory over the Volunteers.

With Georges headed out to sea, the Florida offense does the most damage on the day, throwing for seven touchdowns on a 452 yard aerial performance while rushing for 13 more.

As has become almost customary in 1998, the Gators strike immediately on the first possession of the game. Quarterback Jesse Palmer caps off a four-play, 75-yard drive with a 29 yard touchdown pass to Travis Taylor with just one minute and 10 seconds licked off the clock.

Before Kentucky Heisman hopeful quarterback Tim Couch can even get one foot on the field, however, Kentucky ties the game. Craig Yeast, who goes on to have the second-best single game receiving total ever against Florida, breaks the ensuing kickoff and goes the entire length of the field to knot the score up at seven. Two possessions later, he almost duplicates the feat with a 97-yard TD reception down the right sideline from Couch and the Wildcats took a 4-7 lead.

The game turns around for good in the second quarter. On three successive possessions, the Gators perfect their impression of a quick strike force with scoring drives of three plays or less to take a 35-14 lead. Wide Receiver Nafis Karim, who had caught three touchdowns receptions in his career entering the game, catches all three touchdown passes in the second quarter for Florida in a little under two and a half minutes. Kentucky would get no closer than 13 points the rest of the way.

All together, Florida's tag team offense behind Palmer and Doug Johnson outperforms Heisman candidate Couch by four touchdowns and 48 yards.

Other Game Notes

- The Gators are now 15-2 under Steve Spurrier in the next game following a loss.
- UF is 28-1 vs. the SEC at The Swamp in 1990's, including 13 consecutive conference home wins.
- The Gators 452 yard passing performance is the sixth-best single game passing total in school history.
- The seven TD passes is the third-best single game total in SEC history. The UF and SEC record is nine against Central Michigan in 1997.
- The 35 Kentucky points were the most for a UF opponent in The Swamp since Auburn scored 36 in 1994.

Game 5

FLORIDA	+++	+++	++	36
Alabama	+++	++	++	30

October 3, 1998,
 Bryant-Denny Stadium,
 Tuscaloosa, Ala.
 Attendance: 83,818

Florida struggles made the red zone, earning only three field goals after having six first-and-goal situations, but holds on for a 16-0 victory in front of 83,818 at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa. The win gives Florida its seventh win in the last eight meetings over the storied Crimson Tide.

JF kicks off the scoring in the first quarter on a 24-yard

Travis McGriff caught nine passes for 213 yards, the second-best single game total in school history, to highlight a 16-10 win over Alabama, the Gators' seventh win over the Crimson Tide in the last eight meetings.

Jeff Chandler field goal. Highlighting the 69-yard scoring drive is Travis McGriff's first reception of the day - a 62-yard post pattern that sets the senior receiver off on a record-breaking day. For the game he hauls in nine catches for 213 yards and a touchdown, the second-best single-game receiving total in Florida history. His 32-yard touchdown reception from Jesse Palmer in the second quarter puts Florida up 13-3. Besides Chandler's last of three field goals that would be all the points the Gators put on the board despite outgaining the Tide 467-240, Florida would turn the ball over three times inside the Tide three-yard line and its inability to push the ball into the endzone eventually gives Alabama one last chance to win the game.

After Florida fails to gain a first down inside the Tide 25 with under a minute to play, 'Bama quarterback Andrew Zow finds Calvin Hill 45 yards down field on a second-and-15 play. Florida watches in disbelief as Hill sneaks behind a four-deep secondary set to make a wide open catch. If not for a slightly underthrown ball from Zow causing Hill to trip up at the Gator 34, Alabama probably takes the lead with a touchdown.

In a twist of fate, Florida finally gets the turnover break on the next play. Tony George makes up for the preceding catch by picking off Zow's throw to the side line, sealing the victory for Florida.

Along with McGriff's numbers on the day, running back Terry Jackson adds 135 yards on the ground, bowing over the century mark for the fourth time this season, and the Doug Johnson-Jesse Palmer quarterback pair throw for 356 yards and a touchdown in 40 yards of total offense.

Other Game Notes

- McGriff moves into 4 tie for 9th place on the UF career reception chart with nine catches, giving him 85 for his career. His father, Lee, who played at UF from 1972-74, ranks 17th on the Gator list with 87 career receptions.
- McGriff's day was his fourth straight 100-yard receiving game of the season.
- Terry Jackson eclipses the 100-yard rushing mark for the fourth time this season and for the sixth time in the regular season in his career.
- Doug Johnson's second quarter interception broke a career long regular season streak of 91 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, dating back to the South Carolina game in 1997.

- Florida loses two more fumbles in the game and has now lost 12 over the first five games of the season. In 1997 Florida lost just eight fumbles through the entire 11-game regular season.
- UF is minus nine in the turnover margin on the season. In 1997 the Gators were plus-six in that category after five games.
- Florida has now claimed 22 of its last 25 SEC games away from Florida Field.
- Steve Spurrier has now posted a 6-0 record vs. Alabama in the 1990's.

Game 6

FLORIDA..... 22
 LSU 10

October 10, 1998,
 Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field, Gainesville, Fla.
 Attendance: 85,407

Boosted by a defensively-charged comeback in the second half, Florida erases a four-point halftime deficit and rallies to defeat visiting LSU by a final score of 22-10. The Gators win a record 25th consecutive game at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium for the 85,407 fans jamming into the stands and an ESPN television audience watching around the nation.

Revenge after 1997's 28-21 loss to the Tigers in Baton Rouge does not come easy for the Gators, though. LSU takes the lead midway through the first quarter and would head to the locker room up 9-0 at the half. Down at the half at home for the first time since 1995, Florida's defense takes over the game. The Gator "D" that allows LSU 222 yards of offense in the first half holds the Tigers to just 69 more for the night without a score.

With the game on the line, the Florida front seven make the difference even without starting tackle Ed Chester, who suffered a serious knee injury on the game's first play. Holding on to a 12-point lead in the fourth quarter, the Gator special teams hand LSU their best starting field position of the night. Successive penalties on a kickoff give the Tigers possession at the Florida 38 to start their drive. Four plays later, LSU rolls to second and one at the Florida 2. With featured running back Kevin Faulk on the field, the Tigers run him right at Florida's defensive line. On three straight downs, Faulk loses yardage and LSU turns the ball over on downs. They would not seriously threaten again.

Of the season-low 62 plays Florida runs on offense two determine the game. Facing fourth and three from the LSU 10-yard line while trailing 9-0 in the second half, the Gators leave their kicking game on the sidelines and shift the game's momentum in the process. The Gator offense had faltered to 10-15 yards in the first's last eight attempts inside the opponent 20-yard line, but this time Florida converts. Quarterback Doug Johnson, who took over after starter Jesse Palmer suffered a broken clavicle, finds Eric Kinney in the middle of the end zone and the Gators take the lead for good. The play that puts the game out of reach, though, is vintage Steve Spurrier. After the Florida defense stops LSU deep in their own territory early in the fourth, UF starts their drive at midfield. Wide receiver Travis McGriff takes a backward pass from Johnson across the width of the field and completes his first career touchdown throw to Travis Taylor all alone on the left sideline. Florida takes all of one play and 10 seconds to go 49 yards for the score.

McGriff, once again the key to the Gator title, catches a first-quarter touchdown reception to go with his first career TD pass. With 125 receiving yards on the night, he becomes just the second player in UF school history to record five consecutive 100-yard games.

Other Game Notes

■ Florida trails for the first time at home at the half since the 1995 Tennessee game. Overall, Florida is now 5-13 when trailing at the half in the 1990s.

■ Florida's six first-half points is its fewest at Florida Field in the Spurrier era since being held scoreless by South Carolina in 1992.

■ The Gators win for the 11th time out of the last 11 games against LSU, and extend their 14-game SEC winning streak at The Swamp.

■ McGriff becomes the first player in 29 years to record five consecutive 100-yard receiving games. He also becomes the first Gator to record four successive 100-yard games against SEC opponents.

■ McGriff's 65-yard touchdown reception ties him with his father for 17th place on Florida's all-time reception chart with the 57th catch of his career. He finishes the game in sole possession of 7th place with 90 career receptions.

■ Teakus Brown makes his 13th career interception, placing him in a tie for third on the UF's all-time chart.

Game 7

Auburn 3

October 17, 1998,
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field, Gainesville, Fla.
Attendance: 85,557

Florida scores all of its points in the first two quarters before running out a 24-3 victory over visiting Auburn. The nation's second-longest home winning streak improves to 26 consecutive games in front of 85,557 at the Swamp.

The Gators, with Doug Johnson at starting quarterback for the first time this season, bring out the multiple spread formations, the flea-flickers and the reverses and fun-and-gun their way to a 24-3 lead before 23 minutes can expire in the game. Johnson throws for 163 of his 198 yards and two touchdowns in the half as L.F.our gains Auburn 222 to 39 in the opening frames.

Auburn fumbles the exchange on their first play from scrimmage, giving the Gators possession on the Tiger 32-yard line. Two plays later, Johnson hits Travis Taylor up the middle for a 32-yard touchdown, his team-leading seventh of the year. In the next drive, Travis McGriff puts his first rushing touchdown of the year on the board with a seven-yard scamper before catching his sixth TD in the second quarter. McGriff has now rushed passed and received at least one touchdown for the year. Florida ends its scoring for the day on Jeff Chandler's career-long 46-yard field goal in the second quarter.

The lead safely in the hands of the Gator defense, the offense turns to the running game throughout the second half. While the yardage doesn't pile up for the L.F. rushing attack, even less works for the Auburn offense in the face of Florida's front seven. After Auburn scores on their last possession of the first quarter, only two of their 11 ensuing drives would enter into Florida territory. As the game nears its completion, the Gators make one final stand, holding the Tigers on downs at the L.F. four-yard line, preserving the shutout in the second half.

Florida records its fourth consecutive win over Auburn, the first time UF has claimed four consecutive victories over the Tigers since running four straight from 1973 to 1976, and just the third time ever in the 66-year-old series.

Other Game Notes

■ Florida is now 52-2 at The Swamp since 1990, including a 10-1 mark vs. Southeastern Conference foes.

■ L.F.'s defense has held five of seven opponents to 10-or-less points this year.

■ Florida's 307 yards of total offense is the third-lowest in the Spurrier Era and were the lowest in a Gator win under Spurrier.

■ Florida was shutout in the second half to mark just the sixth time under Spurrier that a Florida team failed to score in a single half and just the second time L.F. has been shutout at home in a single half. The previous five scoreless halves at Alabama (1990, 1st), at Tennessee (1990, 2nd), at Mississippi State (1992, 2nd), vs. South Carolina (1992, 1st), and at Tennessee (1996, 2nd).

■ Teakus Brown recorded his 14th career interception, tying him with Wilk White

• 1987-92 for second place on the UF all-time interception lists. Only Fred Weary (1994-97) recorded more interceptions in his UF career with 15. Brown now has four interceptions this season, extending UF's streak to six consecutive games with at least one interception and the third one UF has two or more interceptions in a game this year (with Tony George's third quarter pick).

• Travis McGriff had his break of 0% yards or more receiving games stopped at five, one short of the UF school record of six set by Carlos Alvarez in 1969. He finished with three catches, tying a season-low for 29 years at school's low.

Quarterback Doug Johnson completes 11 of his first 13 attempts for 147 yards to spark the Gators. After hooking up with wide receiver Travis Taylor for a 25-yard touchdown on UF's first possession, he follows that with a hit to Darrell Jackson for another 25 yard score the next time he enters the field and then breaks into the end zone from two yards out on UF's fourth possession.

The passing success opens up the running game for junior Eugene McCashin and freshman Robert Gillespie as the duo carry the ball 23 times for 138 yards. Overall, Florida finishes with 154 rushing yards and two TDs on the ground, their highest totals in both categories since racking up 210 and two touchdowns against North east Louisiana in week two

The Florida defense gives up 461 yards in a high-powered Bulldog offense, but clamps down several times Georgia enters the red zone. Other than a 17 play, 80 yard scoring drive in the second quarter, the Gator defense holds the 'Dawgs outside the endzone and off the scoreboard with big play after big play. The biggest of the day comes nearing the end of the second quarter. On the fourth consecutive screen play by the Georgia offense, split end Tony Small looks to be headed for a momentum changing touchdown when Tony George strips him from behind inside the five-yard line. L.P. Bennie Alexander falls on the ball at the UF six with just 45 seconds left in the half and preserves the Florida 2-7 lead.

Although the Florida defense would hold Georgia scoreless the rest of the way the Gators breathe a little easier after Jeff Chandler hits a 24-yard field goal in the third to extend the lead to 24-7. Johnson seals the victory in the fourth, not with a throw but with a reception for a touchdown as Travis McGriff tofts his second touchdown pass of the year across the field and past a stunned Bulldog defense into the quarterback's hands.

Other Game Notes

■ Florida now owns a 30-44-2 record against Georgia in the all-time series that totals 76 games, the most of any opponent in UF's history. The Gators have won eight of the nine meetings with Georgia in the 1990's.

■ With the victory Head Coach Steve Spurrier has now won 40 games in his nine years at the helm, tying Barry Switzer for the most victories by a major college coach in the 20th century in his first nine years at a school.

■ Florida is 9-2-1 in games against opponents that defeated them in the previous season under Spurrier and have recorded victories in each of the last five revenge games.

■ Florida scored 30 or more points against a Southeastern Conference opponent for the 47th time since 1990, the best in the conference during that time period.

■ QB Doug Johnson threw two TD passes, rushed for one score and caught the 10 yard touchdown pass from Travis McGriff. He is the second Florida player to accomplish the triple scoring threat in a single game in the last two years. Former Gator WR Jacques Green accomplished the feat against Auburn last season.

■ Johnson threw for 298 yards, just two yards short of a potential third 300-yard game in his career. It is his third-best single game effort in his UF career.

■ Johnson's rushing TD was his second career TD on the ground (Southern Mississippi in 1997), while his TD reception was his first time in the endzone on the receiving end of a pass.

■ UF's 14 points in the fourth quarter nearly matched its entire total in that period (16) in its previous seven games.

■ Georgia was only 2 of 13 (15.4 percent) on third down conversions after entering the game with an average of 41.8 percent on the season.

Game 9

Vanderbilt 13

November 7, 1998
Vanderbilt Stadium
Nashville, Tenn.
Attendance: 33,576

As it did the week before against Georgia, the Gator offense continues to click with a 45-13 win over Vanderbilt, making Steve Spurrier this century's winningest coach while in his first nine years at a school. Spurrier earns his 91st victory since 1990 in front of 33,576 at Vanderbilt Stadium.

Faced with a Commodore defense that blitzes on nearly every down, quarterback Doug Johnson throws for 460 yards on the day - just two shy of Danny Wuerffel's single-game record set in 1996. Florida scores touchdowns on three of its first four possessions and gets its first special teams touchdown of the year following a block of Vanderbilt's first punt, which Mike Peterson returns 27 yards for a TD.

Running back Eugene McCaslin, replacing the injured Terry Jackson, rushes for 102 yards, including a 43-yard touchdown jaunt in the third quarter, but it is Johnson who thrusts himself into the spotlight with perhaps the finest performance of his career. Running Spurrier's offense almost exclusively from the shotgun, he completes 24 of 39 attempts with four touchdowns to continue his emergence as one of the top quarterbacks in the Southeastern Conference just six plays into the game Alex Wilkin breaks wide-open down the sideline for a 52 yard touchdown strike from the junior quarterback. On Florida's second possession, Johnson sidesteps a nearly unmaoched unbacker and delivers a 59-yard TD pass to Nafis Karim. By halftime, the Gator quarterback has racked up 315 yards and three touchdowns and has given Florida firm control of a 28-3 ball game.

The Gator defense yields just 232 yards of offense to Vanderbilt (only 78 passing) and does not allow a touchdown until just 2:35 remains in the game.

Other Game Notes

■ Florida has now won six or more SEC games for the ninth straight year (1990-98), extending its current league record. Prior to UF's current streak, no other school in conference history had more than six such seasons in a row.

■ The Gators have now won eight consecutive games against Vanderbilt and lead the all-time series - 9-2.

■ The Gators are now 1-6 on artificial turf since 1990, including victories in nine of their last 10 games.

■ Florida is a perfect 6-0 against unranked opponents under Steve Spurrier since 1993.

■ Florida has held seven of its nine opponents this year to 13 or less points.

■ Mike Peterson was credited with his second career south down on the return of Levon Kearse's blocked punt (he also returned a punt blocked by Terry Jackson vs. South Carolina in 1996 and ran nine yards for a touchdown) Kearse recorded the second block of his career (also blocked PAT vs. LSU in 1996).

■ Travis McGriff grabbed his 100th career reception with his second catch of the day making him the 15th player in school history to reach 100 catches (prior to 1990, only six players in school history had reached to the 100-catch mark, but nine players have accomplished the feat under Spurrier since 1990).

■ With 157 yards on the day, McGriff also eclipsed 1000 receiving yards for the year. The senior wide receiver has 1355 yards off receptions in 978.

Game 10

FLORIDA 33
South Carolina 14

November 14, 1998.

Florida Field at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium,
Gainesville, Fla.
Attendance: 85,528

For the first time in Florida football history, a Gator senior class completes its career without a single loss at home with a 33-14 Homecoming victory over South Carolina at Florida Field.

JF takes control in the second quarter, riling up 205 yards of offense in that frame alone to bust open what had been a 0-7 game. After South Carolina scores in the opening moments of the second, quarterback Doug Johnson leads Florida on two impressive drives culminating with 34- and 36-yard touchdowns to Travis Taylor and Travis McGriff.

The resurgent junior completes 10 passes in a row for 86 yards in the six minutes and 23 seconds the Gators have the ball in the quarter.

With the win, the class of '98 puts the final highlights on a 24-0 campaign in the confines of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and ensures that the Gators will begin 1999 with the longest home winning streak in the nation at 27 games.

McGriff puts an exclamation mark on one of the single greatest seasons ever for a Florida receiver on his last day on the field. Needing 295 yards to break Carlos Alvarez record for single season yardage by a receiver at the beginning of the day, McGriff catches just two receptions and 5 yards shy of tying Alvarez single game marks as well. For the day, the Gator senior reeks up 13 receptions for 222 yards - both career highs and the second-best totals in school history - leaving himself just 71 yards short of the season record with one game to play. On the final score of his home career in the third quarter, he catches a 29-yard fade from Johnson for the touchdown, his second of the day.

Other Game Notes

■ UF's 1998 senior class climbs to third-best in school history with 43 victories (43-5), trailing only the 1996 (45 wins) and the 1997 classes (44 wins).

■ McGriff's 222 receiving yards rank as the second-best single game performance in school history. He now has recorded two of the top three single-game receiving yard totals in school history this season and he is the only player in school history to record two 200-yard receiving

The South Carolina game marked several historical moments in Gator history. A true Florida legend, George Edmondson, a.k.a. Mr. Two Bits, announced his retirement after 50 years as the unofficial head cheerleader at Florida Field. The 33-14 win over the Gamecocks also extended the Gator's home win streak to 27 straight, the longest current mark in the nation, and it also made the 1998 Gator senior class the first group in school history to post a perfect home record (24-0 in their four-year career).

■ McGriff surpasses his single-game best for receptions in the first half alone with 10. His previous single-game best was nine receptions against both Tennessee and Alabama earlier in the season...He finishes the day with a career-high 13 catches, the second-best single game total in school history.

■ Florida has won nine or more games for the ninth straight year (1990-98), the second longest such streak in SEC history behind only Alabama's 11 years in a row with nine or more wins (1971-81).

■ The Gators complete another perfect home slate with the win, the 11th time in school history that a squad achieves a spotless 6-0 record or better at home. The Gators have gone undefeated at home seven times since 1990 (1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998), with the other four coming in 1952, 1974, 1981 and 1983.

■ Florida is now 52-20-1 on Homecoming, including a current school-record 10 straight wins. Steve Spurrier is 9-0 on Homecoming since his arrival in 1990.

■ The Gators have won eight straight games against South Carolina and lead the all-time series, 13-3-3.

■ The Florida defense holds South Carolina to 281 yards of total offense after USC had averaged 367.0 ypg., coming into the game...USC averaged 13.2 ypg., on the ground entering the game but manages only 83 yards.

■ Florida is a perfect 62-0 against unranked opponents under Steve Spurrier since 1990.

■ L.F. is 76-7 when holding opponents to 21 or points or less since 1990. L.F. has held eight of 10 opponents to 14 points or less this season.

■ The game also marks the end of a true Florida legend. Mr. Two-Bits, a.k.a. George Edmondson, announces his retirement after 50 years as the unofficial head cheerleader at "The Swamp."

Gator Football

A Historical Review

The 1996 Gator squad captured the consensus national title with a 52-10 win over Florida State in the national championship game at the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. The squad posted an overall 12-1 record and ranked among the most dominant contingents in SEC history as it posted a perfect 9-0 mark in league play and defeated its conference foes by an average of 31 points per game.

Florida, one of only a few schools designated a major college football dynasty by the NCAA, a charter member of the prestigious South eastern Conference, one of the participant schools in the first ever SEC Football Championship Game in 1992, a game that was also the first ever championship playoff game for Div. I-A1, and 1996 national champion, started football in 1906 against Rollins on a baseball field located immediately south of the current Florida Field. The Gators won 6-0 and went on the following year to record a 4-0-1 mark behind the running of a half back named Willie Shands, who eventually became an important senator for whom the Shands Hospital and Clinics at UF are named.

The finest of the early teams at Florida were under the tutelage of U.S. Army Major Jettie A. Van Fleet, head coach and senior in honor of the school's ROTC program. The Van Fleet teams in 1923-24 attracted national attention to the Gator football program for the first time.

In 1923 Florida tied Georgia Tech, the ruler of Southern football, 7-7, in Atlanta. The Jackets came from behind late in the game to earn the drawlock.

In the final game of that season, Florida recorded one of the most shocking upsets of the year, beating Alabama and Wallace Wade in Birmingham 7-0, as All-Southern back Edgar Jones scored every point for the Gators.

Florida was 6-1-2 that season and 6-2-2 in 1924 recording 7-7 ties against both Georgia Tech and Texas, two of the national football powers, and losing to Army, 14-7, at West Point.

Florida's 1928 team led the nation in scoring on the way to an 8-1 record, losing its final game, 13-14, on a wet field in Knoxville, Tenn. to Tennessee.

The 1930's produced great individual talent at Florida. Walter (Tiger) Mayberry was an All-SEC halfback who was later to lose his life in World War I as an often decorated Marine pilot. Tommy Harrison was a recordsetting Florida has appeared in 26 bowl games, seen 113 of its players earn All-American recognition, including 49 who have earned first team All-American honors, had two players receive the Heisman Trophy, had two players honored as the "National Defensive Player of the Year", played in the first ever SEC Championship Game, seen 30 of its players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft and captured the 1996 National Championship.

passer in 1930 and went on to become a president of Blair Radio and TV, a nationwide firm. His avocation label was "end runner." Forgie Ferguson, an all-star athlete who died years later as the result of wounds suffered in the invasion of Normandy during World War II.

Billy Wondruff brought the Gators to solid national status as the head coach of the 1950's. He produced the first bowl team in 1952. All-American linemen like Charlie Faltus, John Barrow and Ver Heckman gave a reputation for hard-nosed defense.

Ray Graves came out of the decade of the 1960's as the winningest Florida coach of record. He was 70-3-4 with five bowl teams, four of which won. His only losing bowl team lost by a point to Missouri in the 1966 Sugar Bowl, 10-9.

That decade also produced Hurricane Trophy winner Steve Spurrier, a record-setting passer, as was quarterback John Reaves in 1967, who smashed five national marks.

The teams of Doug Dickey, from 1970-78 went to four bowls. His 1973 team was the second national edition ever to defeat Auburn at Auburn and went on that year to beat Georgia, FSU and Miami in the same month, a rare feat for Florida.

Dickey's top players included All-Americans Jack Youngblood, defensive end, Wes Chandler, wide receiver, Sammy Green and Ralph Ortega, linebackers, and SEC rushing king Jimmy DuBose.

Charlie Holt's rebuilding job began in 1979 and his last four Florida teams went to bowls averaging eight wins a season against one of the nation's most demanding schedules. Pet's 1981 team secured the school's then highest final ranking ever with a No. 6 finish. Wilber Marshall, a linebacker, was named National Defensive Player of the Year.

The top players of the Bell era, 1979-84, were WR Lee Collinsworth, DB David Little, DT Darin Galloway, LB Wilber Marshall and DT Lomas Brown. All were first team All-American selections.

Walen Hall was named interim coach after the first three games of the 1984 season. He proceeded to win the next eight games. When the squad defeated Kentucky 25-7 to finish the school's first ever first place finish in the SEC standing, he was named the new head coach in the locker room after the game in Lexington.

The squad closed the banner year with a 7-4 win at Florida State to cap a 9-1 season. In the final regular season wire rankings, Florida was ranked third in the nation, the best regular season ranking in school history. The 1984 squad was named the national champion by the N.Y. Times and

The Sporting News.

Florida's historic 1984-85 banner season was 11-0. The Gators opened the season with an eight-game unbeaten streak to start 4-0, six wins in unbeaten mark, 7-0, consecutive games. When Florida defeated Auburn, 40-0 in the eighth week of the season, UF was ranked first in the weekly Associated Press rankings, the first time in school history that the Gators held that distinction. Florida finished with a second straight 9-1-1 season. The Gators were ranked 36th in the final AP ranking.

The period of 1983-85 ranked as the most successful in school history. During that time frame, Florida was the only school in the nation to finish in the top six in the final AP ranking in each of those respective seasons. Florida's 2-4 record during that time frame represented the second best winning percentage, 8-8, in the nation.

The Birth of a Nickname

Reprinted from Florida Times-Union, August 2, 1948.

A Gainesville Boyer "Christian" the University of Florida's football team 45 years ago when he gave it a permanent design from Charlottesville, Va., the suggestion of "The Alligator."

Frank Miller, who has followed his football career shortly after his graduation from the University of Virginia in 1903, yesterday recalled the circumstances surrounding the choice of a name for Florida University's athletic teams. It happened in the fall of 1907, a year after the University of Gainesville had finished its first year.

"Miller, brother of Colonel Miller, was enrolled in the University of Virginia at the time and was visited by his father, Philip Miller, a Gainesville merchant. The older Miller, who died nine years ago, then opened and operated a mercantile drug store and stationary store in Charlottesville, a popular center for university students.

"While in Charlottesville, the father decided to enter three pennants and banners for the University of Florida from the "Mikie Cane" gang, which had engaged in the destruction of railroads. The Mikie went to the first, where they were shown a sample of pennants which featured the Mikie holding the Princeton flag and other school emblems. When the manager asked for Florida's emblem, the Mikie refused the overworked host.

"Frank Miller said that 'Mike Mikie' seemed to him as a suitable emblem, both because the Mikie had adopted it and because the alligator was native to this state. 'I had no idea it would catch, or even be popular with the student body,' Miller said. 'We wanted to get the Mikie firm started in the pennant as quickly as possible, though, so they would be available in time for the opening of the 1908 season.'

"The Mikie manager complimented the decision when he told young Miller he'd never seen an alligator and didn't believe he could design one. The four students volunteered to find a suitable picture of a 'gator. After much search, he said, he located a picture of one in the library of the University of Virginia.

"The first appearance of the alligator emblem, Miller recalled was in his father's Gainesville store in 1908. The Mikie firm had supplied 'Miller' with the blue banner, measuring six by three feet, showing a large orange alligator, and also with several different types of smaller banners and pennants. Some of them showed the alligator lying down, some rampant, while others included only the alligator's head."

ended with three successive bowl appearances (1987 Aloha, 1988 All-American, 1989 Freedom). Overall, UF went to seven bowl games in the 1980's making it the most successful in that regard in school history. In addition, the Gators posted 76 wins during the 1980's, the most successful decade in school history.

Gary Darnell replaced Hall as interim head coach six games into the 1989 season. Hall completed his career (1984-89) with a 40-8-1 record. The top players of his reign were first-team All-America selections OLB Alonzo Johnson, OG Jeff Zimmerman, OLB Clifford E. Horton, DB Louis Oliver, DB Jarvis Williams, DT Trace Armstrong, and RB Emmitt Smith. In addition, QB Kerwin Bell, FB John I. Williams, and RB Neal Anderson ranked among UF's all-time greats.

On the eve of the new decade of the 1990's (Dec 31, 1989), Steve Spurrier, a man who had provided the University of Florida with so many fond memories as a player, was hired as the school's head coach.

Spurrier waited little time in making a dramatic impact on the Gator program. His 1990 team started the year with a 9-1 record, the best start for a UF team in school history. The squad finished with a 9-2 record and in the process established 14 new school records. Its 6-1 conference record was the best in the SEC. Included in the nine wins were 41 and 3 point victories over Auburn and Georgia respectively, then the largest vs. those two long-time rivals in school history.

Steve Spurrier, the 1966 Heisman Trophy recipient at UF, has led the Gators to their greatest team achievements since taking over the coaching reins in 1990. In the last eight years Florida has captured five outright SEC titles and the 1996 national championship. Spurrier is one of 113 Gator players who have earned All-America recognition on the football field, including 49 players who have earned first-team All-America distinction.

The 1991 team was even better as it posted an overall 10-2 record, including a perfect 7-0 mark in SEC play to clinch Florida's first ever outright league title. The '91 team was the first in school history to win ten games in a season and closed the banner year with an appearance in the Sugar Bowl vs. Notre Dame. The squad won its last eight straight regular season games and completed the year ranked as the nation's seventh best squad.

The 1992 team started the season at 1-2 but bounced back to win seven straight games and claim a spot in the first-ever SEC Championship Game as the Eastern Division representative where it lost a heartbreaking 28-21 decision to unbeaten and eventual national champion Alabama. The Gators closed out the '92 campaign with a 27-10 win over North Carolina State in the Gator Bowl giving it a 9-4 record and final AP national ranking of 10th. It marked just the second time in school history that the Gators had won nine or more games in three consecutive seasons.

The 1993 unit won the SEC title, won more total games (11), and more SEC games (8) than any team in Gator history, and won the school's first ever Sugar Bowl championship. The '93 Gators posted a final 11-2 record and ended the year ranked 5th in the final AP Poll and 4th in the USA Today/CNN Coaches Poll, just the third time in school history that a UF team finished the year ranked among the nation's five best.

The 1994 unit posted a 10-2-1 record and finished the year ranked 7th in the final polls, a fourth straight year in the top ten. The Gators once again won the SEC title their third in four years.

The 1995 Gator season was the greatest in school history, as the squad posted a perfect 12-0 regular season mark and advanced to the National Championship Game in the Fiesta Bowl versus Nebraska. Florida won its third straight SEC title, something only accomplished by nine other school in league history. Alabama as well as finishing the year

The '98 team posted a 10-2 record, including a 31-10 win over Syracuse in the FedEx Orange Bowl, to become the first school in SEC history to win at least 10 games a season for six straight years. The Gators finished the year ranked among the nation's top five teams for the fourth straight season.

ranked second in the final AP Poll, its highest finish ever. The 12 wins was the most in school history.

The 1996 team took things to an even higher level as it garnered the school's first national title after posting a 52-20 win over state rival Florida State in the national championship game at the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. The squad posted a 12-1 record and won a fourth straight SEC title, something only accomplished one other time in SEC history. Alabama (1971-'75) it ranked among the most dominant teams in SEC history as it posted a perfect 9-0 mark vs. league teams and won its 5 EC games by an average margin of 31.0 points. QB Danny Wuerffel joined Steve Spurrier as a L.F. Heisman Trophy recipient.

The 1997 team posted a 10-2 record and finished the year ranked fourth, the seventh straight season a Gator team finished the year ranked in the top 10. The squad, which failed to win the SEC title for the first time since 1992, completed the year with a 32-23 upset of top-ranked Florida State and a 21-6 win over ice Paterno and the Penn State Nittany Lions at the Florida Citrus Bowl. The 1998 team also posted a 10-2 record and in the process Florida became the first school in SEC history to win at least 10 games in a season for six straight years.

Since it began playing football in 1906, the Gators have had 49 first team All-Americans, two Heisman Trophy winners in Steve Spurrier and Danny Wuerffel, played in 26 bowl games and captured the 1996 National Championship. All told, 13 different players have earned All-America honors. Thirty-30 Gator players have been selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

The 1990's have been the most successful decade in Florida history, so successful in fact that the NCAA classified this period of Gator achievement a "major college dynasty," a designation that has been given to a school on rare occasions only after demonstrating consistent excellence over a significant period of time. During the 1990's UF won the 1996 national title, played in two national championship games (1995-'96), won five SEC titles and won nine or more games each year of the decade. Florida won 10-plus games for six straight seasons (1997-'98), an achievement unmatched in SEC history and a streak that ranks among the three longest in that category in major college history. The Gators finished in the top 10 of the polls for eight straight seasons (1991-'98).

Gator Walk-Ons

Many Have Had Distinguished Careers

Prior to his senior year in 1997, QB Noah Beaulac received a scholarship after being a walk-on for three years. A few months later he led UF on a memorable 14 play, 97 yard TD drive for the winning score in a 24-16 win over unbeaten Auburn. Later that year he started as QB in a 31-27 upset win over top-ranked Florida State, as well as in a 31-16 win over Penn State in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

DB Louis Oliver had scholarship offers at some small colleges, but he had a dream of playing major college football. He came to Florida on a walk-on in 1984, earned a scholarship in 1985, became a starter in 1986, and then was named a first-team All-America in 1987 and 1988. He was one of three finalists for the Thorpe Defensive Back of the Year Award in 1988 and was a first-round selection in the 1989 NFL Draft.

ILB Pat Munner had several scholarship offers, but he had a dream of playing in the SEC. He joined the L-F program as a walk-on in August of 1986. Three months later he had earned a starting position, the first true freshman to start a game for the Gator defense since 1981. He was awarded a scholarship in January of 1987. He led the nationally ranked Gator defense in tackles in 1988 and 1989.

For years the University of Florida football program has encouraged and fostered a walk-on program that gives many young men every year the opportunity to live their dream of playing major college football. The walk-ons are treated in the same first-class manner with total respect as the rest of the squad.

As these two pages show, the walk-ons have contributed greatly to the success of the Gator football program. Twenty-six members of the 1991 Southeastern Conference Championship team, the first official SEC title in school history, were walk-ons.

Many former walk-ons have eventually earned scholarships. Z. Latune since 1996, under Coach Spurrier, earned starting positions, gained All-SEC and All-America honors, and even eventually played pro football. None of these players would have lived their dream and reached their potential if the University of Florida hadn't extended the opportunity they were seeking. Their eventual success has become a cherished part of the Gator football tradition and heritage.

The Gator walk-on program has indeed proved successful and beneficial to both the individual student-athletes and to the University of Florida football program. That is soundly demonstrated by the following facts:

- Eleven former Gator walk-ons have gone on to play professional football: DB Hugood, Clarke; DB Allen, Trammell; DB Bruce, Vaughan; LB James, Hurrell; WR Lee, McCarty; PK John, James; PK David, Posey; QB Kerwin, Bell; DB Louis, Oliver; WR Chris, Diering; and TE Tremayne, Allen.
- Former walk-on Louis Oliver was selected in the first round of the 1989 NFL Draft by Miami.
- Former walk-on John James went on to earn All-Pro honors as a punter in the NFL.

- Former walk-on Kerwin Bell earned SEC Player of the Year honors in 1984 and completed his career in 1987 as the greatest statistical passer in SEC history.
- Former walk-on DB Louis Oliver earned first-team All-America honors in 1987 and 1988.
- When Bobby Raymond completed his career in 1984, the former walk-on's name appeared in the NCAA place-kicking records in five separate categories.
- Walk-on WR Cary, Rolle was named Academic All-

QB Kerwin Bell (left) was told by major college coaches that he didn't have the skills to compete at that level. He felt they were wrong and wanted a chance to prove it. He decided to walk-on at Florida in 1983. A year later in 1984 as a non-scholarship player he became a starter and was named "SEC Player of the Year." By the time he completed his career in 1987 he was the SEC's all-time leading passer with over 7,500 yards. He is one of eleven former UF walk-ons who have gone on to play pro football.

America and winner of the National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete Award in 1994.

- Sixty-five '65) Gator walk-ons have earned Academic All-SEC honors.
- Former walk-on Kerwin Bell became a prominent Heisman Trophy candidate in 1987.
- Former walk-on Louis Oliver was one of three finalists for the Thorpe Defensive Back of the Year Award in 1988.
- Former Walk-on Judd Davis was named the 1991 recipient of the Lou Groza National Place-Kicker of the Year. He was also named a first-team All-America that season and completed his UF career in 1994 with 225 points, the top total in school history.
- Former walk-on Chris Doering completed his Gator career in 1995 with 31 career TD catches, the top total in SEC and UF history. Doering was named second-team All-America, as well as first-team All-SEC in 1995, after grabbing 17 TD receptions, the best seasonal mark in SEC and F history.

- The 1985 Gator team that finished 9-1 and fifth in the final national rankings had 18 prominent players that originally joined the program as walk-ons.
- Six former Gator walk-ons - WR Lee McGriff, WR Chris Doering, DE Preston Kendrick, PK David Poney, QB Kerwin Bell, and DE Louis Oliver - have gone on to earn first-team All-SEC honors.

The facts above clearly point out that the walk-on program is a valued aspect of the Gator football team. It has provided an opportunity for countless young men to prove that the evaluation and recruiting process is far from flawless. It allows a young man to mature physically, improve his football skills, and contribute to the success of University of Florida football.

Walk-on Judd Davis was the 1991 recipient of the "Lou Groza National Place-Kicker of the Year Award." He was also a first-team UPI All-America selection that season. He completed his career in 1994 with 225 points, then the top total in UF history. He is one of 21 walk-ons who have been awarded a scholarship by Coach Spurrier since 1994.

Former walk-on Tremayne Allen (above) was with the Chicago Bears in 1997 and 1998.

Former walk-on Chris Doering completed his outstanding career in 1995 with 31 TD catches, the most in SEC receiving history. His 17 TDs in 1995 also set SEC and UF seasonal records.

Two Sport Athletes

A long-standing tradition at the University of Florida is becoming more visible everyday. More and more Gator athletes are now two-sport participants, taking part in more than one sport.

Football players have had success in both football, as well as track and field, baseball and basketball.

In recent years, Gator football players have participated in the U.F. basketball, baseball and track and field squads.

The University of Florida is the only school to ever be represented in the first round of the NFL Draft for nine consecutive years since the NFL began its draft in 1936. Bowl History

Florida's first bowl trip came after the 1952 season as the Gators headed to the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville to face Tulsa on January 1, 1953.

Powered by the running of Rick Casares and Papa Hall, the Gators edged the Golden Hurricanes 4-13 as Tulsa senior Tom Minor missed the first PAT attempt of his career. Gator All-America tackle Charlie Alford was the game's defensive hero.

Quarterback Jimmy Dunn and All-SEC end Dave Hudson led Florida back in the Gator Bowl in 1958 where they lost to Mississippi 7-1. Ray Graves, first Florida team returned to the Jacksonville classic after the 1960 season and knocked off Baylor 13-7 behind the running of Don Goodman and quarterback Larry Libertore.

One of the biggest upsets in Gator Bowl history took place in 1962 when heavily favored Penn State was soundly beaten by the Gators 1-21 led by quarterback Tom Shannon and a stout defense.

In 1966 Florida fell behind Missouri 20-0 in the Sugar Bowl and rallied for 15 points in the final quarter behind quarterback Steve Spurrier. Each Gator touchdown was followed by a two-point conversion attempt and all of them failed.

Spurrier became the first player from the losing team to be named the game's most outstanding player in the history of the Sugar Bowl. He broke six bowl records in the contest.

The Gators got back on the winning track the following year in the Orange Bowl beating Georgia Tech 2-2 behind Heisman Trophy winner Spurrier. It was Bobby Dodd's final game as Tech's head coach and Florida made it an unhappy night for him. Larry Smith set a new record for running yards for a touch down and the Gators almost losing his pants on the way.

In Ray Graves' final game as Florida's coach he watched his young team beat SEC champion Tennessee 14-3 in the 1969 Gator Bowl. Florida's defense was superb with a blocked punt by Steve Tannon resulting in one TD and an interception setting up the other.

In 1971 the Tangerine Bowl was played in Gainesville due to construction at the Orlando stadium site. It was 2-2 degrees when the game started and Miami's ship fueled every minute of it en route to a 6-7 upset Florida.

nearly pulled a major upset over senior leading Nebraska 10-6 and scoring an apparent TD on a 76 yard run by Tony Green only to have it ruled out of bounds. The Huskers came back in the Sugar Bowl to win 3-10. Florida stars were All-America linemen Ralph Ortega and Glenn Cameron, defensive end Prescott Kendrick, the game's most outstanding defensive player and running back Green.

The Gators returned to the Gator Bowl in 1975 and were soundly beaten in the rain by Miami 14-10. In 1977 power full coach Al Musgrave led Florida 37-14 to the Sun Bowl.

Charles Pell's first bowl team at Florida came in 1980 and the Gators played outstanding football in the Tangerine Bowl to whip Maryland 15-20 behind All-America wide receiver Cris Collinsworth, the game's most valuable player. All-America David Galloway was the most outstanding defensive player of the season.

In the cold of Atlanta, Ga. in the 1981 Peach Bowl the favored Gators were stunned by West Virginia 27-6.

After a bowl loss in 1982, the Gators returned to the field against Arkansas in the Bluebonnet Bowl before losing 28-24. Wide receiver Dwayne Davis was named Florida's MVP after catching three TD passes.

The 1983 squad making its fourth consecutive bowl appearance under Pell defeated Iowa 14-6. The win earned the Gators a No. 6 final ranking, then the best finish in UF history.

The 1984 and 1985 teams, after losing 12 seasons, were unable to participate in bowl games due to NCAA sanctions.

Florida reentered the bowl scene on Christmas Day 1985 as they faced UCLA in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii. The Gators, a big underdog, suffered a tough 20-16 setback in a game that literally went down to the final play when a Herwin Bell pass fell incomplete in the end zone. Emmitt Smith, named Florida's MVP in the bowl, completed his banner freshman season with 128 rushing yards on just 17 carries (7.5 ypc) against a UCLA squad that ranked fourth in the nation in defense against the rush in 1987.

Galen Hall captured his first bowl victory as a head coach in the 1988 All-American Bowl. Sophomore Emmitt Smith, the game's MVP, scored late in the fourth quarter to give Florida a 14-10 win over Illinois. Smith rushed for 159 yards on the night, the second top rushing total in a bowl game in UF history. OLB Huey Richardson led a fierce Gator defense that held the Illinois to just 55 rushing yards and harassed QB Jeff George all night.

The Gators completed the decade of the 1980's with a 3-4-7 loss to Washington in the 1989 Freedom Bowl at Anaheim, Calif. The Freedom Bowl appearance marked the seventh bowl appearance for Florida during the decade of the 1980's, making it the most successful decade for post-season play in school history.

The 1991 team capped a historic season with an appearance in the 1992 Sugar Bowl vs. Notre Dame. Despite registering 511 yards in total offense in the fourth quarter, 370 yards passing by Shane Matthews, the Gators suffered a 39-28 setback to the Irish in Steve Spurrier's first bowl game as UF coach. Notre Dame scored three TDs in the last five minutes of the game after Florida had moved ahead 22-14 in the fourth quarter. A record 34 combined points were scored in the wild fourth period.

Ernie Rhee rushed for 157 yards, the third top total in Gator Bowl history and the second best total for a Florida player in a bowl game, to highlight an impressive 27-10 win over ACC runnerup North Carolina State in the 1992 Gator Bowl. UF's defense had a fine night as it held the Wolfpack to just 13 first downs and 267 yards in total offense while Shane Matthews closed out his brilliant career leading a Gator offense that registered 26 first downs, ran 88 plays and totaled 445 yards in total offense. Rhee was named MVP of the game.

The 1993 team closed out the winningest season (11-2 record) in school history with an impressive 41-7 win over undefeated West Virginia in the Sugar Bowl. Ernie Rhee, who rushed for 105 yards and three TDs, was named the game's MVP. Willie Jackson had nine catches (second best bowl game total in UF history) for 131 yards and a TD, while Terry Dean completed 22 of 37 passes for 255 yards and a TD to highlight an offense that generated 30 first downs and 462 total yards. The defense held a Mountaineer team that averaged 36.5 points and 464 yards a game in total offense to just seven points and 265 total net yards. The 41-7 win was UF's first Sugar Bowl victory in bowl appearances and the first since the 1967 first Sugar Bowl game.

Florida returned to the Sugar Bowl after the 1994 season where it met state rival Florida State just a month after the two teams had battled to a 31-3 tie. Danny Wuerffel threw for a Sugar Bowl record 394 yards (28 of 39 with 1 TD and 1 interception), but the Gators fell 23-17. UF registered 454 yards in offense (449 passing and 5 rushing) while FSU posted 401 yards (325 passing and 76 rushing) in a game that was played January 2, 1995 before a crowd of over 74,000 at the Louisiana Superdome.

The 1995 Gator squad, coming off the first perfect regular season in school history, appeared in the National Championship Game versus Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl. The Gators started strong, holding a 10-6 lead at the end of the first quarter, thanks to a Bart Edmiston field goal and a 1-yard run by Danny Wuerffel. But the Cornhuskers were too much as they posted a 62-24 victory and captured their second consecutive national title before 79,864 fans and a national television audience. Reidel Anthony returned a kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter, the first return for a TD in Gator bowl history.

The 1996 season produced the Gators' second straight appearance in the National Championship Game and Florida came out on the winning end this time as it knocked off top-ranked Florida State, 52-20, in the 1997 Sugar Bowl, to claim its first-ever national title. Both teams opened the contest throwing the football, combining for 238 yards passing and a 13-3 Gator lead at the end of the first quarter. Florida, which worked out of the shotgun for much of the game, twice extended its lead to 14 points but the Seminoles responded each time, cutting the UF lead to 24-17 with under a minute to play in the half. Senior Bentley trimmed the Gator lead to 24-20 on a 45-yard field goal less than five minutes into the second half, but the Seminoles would not score again. Florida sealed the victory by scoring the final 28 points of the game, a run that began with the Hilliard's third touchdown reception of the game on an eight-yard strike from Danny Wuerffel. Wuerffel scrambles 16 yards for a score to put UF up 38-20 with six minutes left in the third quarter and Terry Jackson added a fourth-quarter scoring run, including a 42-yarder for the final margin. The Gator defense is strong from start to finish, stopping the Seminoles on downs at the UF 23 on the game's opening possession and holding FSU to just 40 yards in the game.

On New Year's Day 1998, in Orlando the Gators defeated Penn State and legendary Nittany Lion coach Joe Paterno at the Florida Citrus Bowl. Fred Taylor rushed for 234 yards, the most ever by a Gator in a bowl game and the most ever in the Citrus Bowl, to lead the Gators to a 21-6 victory. The Gator defense was dominant in the game, holding Penn State to 33 total yards. It was a career high for a Penn State squad under Paterno, and twice stopped the Nittany Lions from scoring on fourth and goal situations inside the one-yard line in the second quarter.

On January 2, 1999, the Spurrier-led Gators made their first appearance in the Orange Bowl game since his final game as a Gator player in 1974. UF posted a 31-10 win over Syracuse that gave the Gators three straight bowl wins for the first time in school history and it also enabled UF to win at least 10 games for a sixth straight season, something never achieved in SEC history.

Chronology

Florida Focus

- The University of Florida is a major, public comprehensive land grant research university. The state's oldest, largest and most comprehensive university, UF is among the nation's most academically diverse universities.
- Of Florida's 42,000 students, 70 percent are undergraduates, 19 percent are graduate students and five percent are in professional programs (medicine, law, etc.).
- Florida's 187 total SEC Football Academic Honor Roll recipients since 1940 ranks as the second best total in the conference.
- Over the last eight Summer Olympic Games 83 Gator student-athletes have represented their respective countries. That number has laid claim to 51 total Olympic medals, including 25 golds. Twenty Gator student-athletes represented six countries at the 1996 Summer Olympic Games in Atlanta.
- Florida is the only school in Southeastern Conference history to win at least six conference games in a year for nine straight seasons (1990-98).

Steve Spurrier's 40-yard field goal late in the 1966 contest vs. Auburn gave the Gators a dramatic 10-27 victory. That kick, combined with 259 passing yards and a 46.9 average per punt, played a major role in his selection as the recipient of the 1966 Heisman Trophy.

College football had one of its most exciting and successful eras in the 1960's—the Ray Graves era. One of Florida's most thrilling and electrifying victories of that era was a 10-6 upset win over Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa in 1963. The magnitude of the win continued to grow in significance over the years as Bryant's Crimson Tide squad did not lose another game in Tuscaloosa until 1982.

Richy Nattiel celebrates moments after the Gators posted a 14-10 win at Auburn in 1985. The victory resulted in Florida being ranked number one in the nation in the AP Poll for the first time in school history.

The 1984 Gator squad posted an overall 9-1 record and was ranked third in the final AP rankings. The Sporting News and the New York Times declared the squad national champions. Florida's 5-0-1 mark in SEC play marked the first time in school history that a Gator squad finished with the best record in SEC play.

The 1985 UF squad posted a 9-1-1 record and was ranked fifth in the final AP poll. Its 5-1-0 mark in SEC play tied for first in the league standings. After its 14-10 win at Auburn, it became the first squad in school history to be ranked number one in the nation in a wire service poll.

The 1990 team posted a 9-2 overall record and its 9-1 start was then the best in school history. It finished with the best record in the SEC with a 6-1 mark, the first time in school history that a Gator team posted six conference wins in a season. It became the first UF team since 1928 to defeat both Alabama and Auburn in the same year and it posted the largest victory margins over Auburn and Georgia in school history.

Steve Spurrier is hoisted onto his players' shoulders after posting a 35-26 win in 1991 over Kentucky which gave the Gators their first official SEC title. Since 1991, the Gators have gone on to win five SEC championships, including four straight from 1993-96.

The 1971 team was the first in school history to win 10 games in a season and the first to win an outright SEC title completing a perfect 7-0 conference record. The squad posted a 10-2 overall record, played Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl and finished the year ranked seventh in the nation. It was the first contingent in school history to defeat Auburn, Alabama, Georgia, Florida State and Tennessee in the same season.

The 1991 Gator contingent won the SEC title, won more games in a season - 11 - than any team in school history and was the school's first-ever Sugar Bowl champion. The squad won more SEC games - 8 - than any team in school history and completed the season ranked 5th in the final AP Poll and 4th in the USA Today/CNN Coaches Poll.

The 1994 squad posted a 10-2-1 record, finished the year ranked 7th in the final polls, won the SEC title with a 24-23 win over Alabama and defeated Georgia for a record fifth straight season. It sat atop the AP Poll in seven of the first nine weeks of the season.

A National Championship and a Heisman

Behind arguably the finest offensive unit in SEC history, a solid defense that registered a school record six touchdowns, and some good fortune late in the year, the Florida Gators capped off the greatest season in school history with a stunning 52-20 victory over number one ranked Florida State in the Nokia Sugar Bowl in New Orleans on January 2, 1997 to claim the consensus 1996 national championship.

Florida became one of just three teams in NCAA history to be named the national champions in the same season in which it faced a schedule that the NCAA deemed the nation's toughest. Penn State (1984 champion), Colorado (1990 co-champion) and Florida (1996 champion) were the only teams in NCAA history to accomplish that feat.

Behind record-setting quarterback Danny Wuerffel, who joined Steve Spurrier as a UF Heisman Trophy recipient, the Gator offense averaged 46.6 points per game, a mark that ranked as the best in SEC history and led the nation. Florida, posting a 9-0 mark in SEC play, tallied its underdog status by an average of 46.8 (5.8 to 31) point average victory margin in SEC games. Its 76 touchdowns were the most in SEC history and in addition to leading the nation in scoring (46.6 points per game), it also led the country in average yards per play (7.1) and TD passes (42).

After posting a 12-1 record in 1995, with the one setback coming in the 1995 national title game against Nebraska, the Gators opened the new season with high expectations once again. After posting a 35-29 win (in which UF jumped to a 35-0 lead in the first 20 minutes) at Tennessee in the third week of the season, in a much-hyped contest between Wuerffel and UT's Peyton Manning, the Gators moved into the number one spot in the polls. They held that spot until the last regular season game of the year when they suffered a 24-21 setback to number-two ranked Florida State in Tallahassee and fell to a fourth place ranking in the national polls. Fate, however, would bring these two state rivals back together six weeks later in New Orleans.

A week after the loss to FSU, Texas upset number three ranked Nebraska in the Big XI Championship Game. That night the Gators defeated Alabama, 45-30, in Atlanta in the SEC Championship Game behind a six-touchdown performance by Wuerffel, which clinched the Heisman Trophy that he received the following week in New York. Entering the bowl season ranked number three, the Gators then saw Ohio State knock off second ranked Arizona State at the Rose Bowl in a dramatic last second victory on New Year's Day. That result now meant that the Jan. 2nd battle in New Orleans with top-ranked FSU was for the 1996 national championship.

The Gators put together a tremendous all-around performance in posting the victory over the Seminoles, which led to a consensus national championship. The 32-point margin of victory over FSU was the largest versus a number one ranked team in bowl history.

Florida Focus

- Since its 1992 inception, the SEC's all-sports title in the sport of football has been won by UF, making the first league school to achieve that unique distinction in 1992 and then accomplished that feat a second time again in 1993, 1994 and 1995.
- UF student-athletes have been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll a combined total of 75 times over the last nine academic years, the top total in the conference over that time span.
- A Florida player has been named "SEC Player of the Year" in five of the past 10 football seasons. During that 10-year time period, UF is the only school in the league to have had more than two players honored with that prestigious award.
- Florida has had 21 players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft since 1983, tied for the top total in the nation for a school over the last 17 NFL drafts.
- Florida has claimed 142 total SEC team titles in its history, the top total for a school in league history.
- A recent report by the American Council of Education ranked UF among the nation's five premier schools for combining academic and athletic success. Florida was joined in this elite category by UCLA, Michigan, Stanford and Texas.

Florida's First University Ranks Among the Nation's Elite Institutions of Higher Education

The state's oldest, largest and most comprehensive university, Florida is among the nation's most academically diverse public universities. Florida has a long history of established programs in international education, research and service.

In 1851, the state-funded East Florida Seminary took over the Kingsbury Academy in Ocala. The seminary moved to Gainesville in the 1860s and later was consolidated with the state's land-grant Florida Agricultural College, then in Lake City. In 1905, by legislative action, the college became a university and was moved to Gainesville. Classes first met with 102 students on the present site on September 26, 1906. The University of Florida opened its doors to women in 1947 and was integrated in 1955. With over 42,000 students as of fall 1998, Florida is the seventh largest university in the nation.

Programs

Florida is a member of the Association of American Universities, the prestigious higher education organization comprised of the top 63 public and private institutions in North America. Florida offers more programs on a single campus than all but two U.S. universities. A land-grant university with a distinguished record of developing Florida agriculture through research and extension services, Florida is among the nation's 88 leading research universities as categorized by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education. Florida has 23 colleges and schools and more than 100 research, service and education center, bureaus and institutes. More than 100 undergraduate majors are offered. Nearly 1,600 freshmen and sophomores participate in the honors program, which offers 60-80 honors courses per semester. Most classes are limited to no more than 25 students. The Graduate School coordinates almost 200 graduate programs. Professional degree programs include dentistry, law, medicine, pharmacy and veterinary medicine.

Faculty

Florida has more than 4,000 distinguished faculty members with outstanding reputations for their teaching, research and service, with 974 having earned PhDs. The Teaching Improvement Program (TIP), a nationally recognized program to enhance and reward undergraduate teaching, has provided a major emphasis on the quality of instruction at Florida. The newly developed Professional Excellence Program (PEP) rewards faculty based on their accomplishments and continuing productivity since promotion to the rank of professor, including excellence and high merit in scholarship or creative achievement, teaching, service and extension. The faculty attracted more than $240 million in research and training grants in 1997-98. Some 70 percent of the grant proposals were successful and over 1,500 faculty received grants. Florida ranked eighth among all universities for the number of U.S. patents awarded in 1996.

Florida currently has 53 Emory Scholar Chairs, positions funded at more than $1 million each to attract nationally and internationally recognized scholars. A variety of other endowed professorships help attract prominent faculty. More than two dozen faculty are members of the National Academies of Science and/or Engineering, the Institute of Medicine or a counterpart in another nation.

Also, in a national ranking of total Fulbright Awards for 1997-98, Florida stood 31st among universities with awards.

Libraries

The University Libraries form the largest information resource system in the state of Florida, containing more than 3 million volumes, 3 million microfiche and thousands of full-text electronic journals. The collections reflect the materials found at the university's academic programs and are grouped into broad disciplines, topical formats and special collections. The university libraries comprise the George A. Smathers Libraries, seven separate and specialized libraries located throughout the campus — and the Independent Health Science Center Library and Legal Information Center. Library collections are accessed through the UFLIS online system, which holds more than one million bibliographic records.

Students

University of Florida students are among the best in the nation. Florida ranks fifth among public universities and eighth among all universities in the number of freshmen National Merit Scholars attending. Florida also ranks second among all public institutions in the number of National Achievement Scholars attending and fourth among all institutions. More than 90 percent of all entering freshmen score above the national average on standardized college entrance exams. Some 60 percent of the freshman class

The University of Florida's Institute of Black Culture

In the presentation of lectures, seminars, forums and discussion groups, the University of Florida's Institute of Black Culture assists in the cooperative venture of educating students about the history and cultures of Black peoples the world over.

Programs involve students in planned activities and encourage them to engage in creative projects including Black drama, theatre, music and visual arts. In addition, there are lectures and symposiums relating to the Black experience throughout the world, a research library and reading room and the Black Floridian Hall of Fame.

UF's Institute of Black Culture is proud of its flexibility in meeting the needs of students and citizens from the community who take part in activities and programs of the Institute.

The plaque one sees upon entering the center reads:

"Here is Recorded the Entire Experience of People of African Descent, Historical and Contemporary. The world needs to know of what mettle these people are built."

W. H. Croghan, 1901

The University of Florida was featured in Erlene Wilson's book, "The 100 Best Colleges for African-American Students." Wilson gave accolades to UF's black faculty, as well as its variety of degree programs, freshman and programs and social activities.

Jeremy N. Foley

Jeremy N. Foley, who has handled virtually every aspect of the University of Florida's $39.5 million athletic program during his athletic administrative career which began with an internship in the Ticket Office in 1976, was named UF's Director of Athletics in March of 1992.

A man with great leadership vision and experience, Foley, 46, brings a life-long dedication, never-ending energy and a proven approach to the top athletic post at the University of Florida. Foley's philosophy involves the continued building of a comprehensive athletic program, with the goal of having the overall UF program ranked in the top 10 in the nation.

Says Foley, who had served as UF's Associate Director of Athletics since 1987, "We have not had a top position in the nation in football, basketball, baseball, and football, and football, basketball, and football. With hard work, patience and integrity, we will achieve the success that this University deserves."

Thanks in great part to a tireless effort by Foley, Florida has consistently ranked among the nation's top 10 in the last five years.

As chief financial officer for the University Athletic Association (UAA), Foley helped make UF's athletic program profitable, eliminating a three-quarters of a million dollar debt. He has been the driving force and directly responsible for more than $74 million in capital improvements as well, including two major expansions of the football stadium, a multipurpose athletic fieldhouse, new facilities for tennis, track & field, soccer, baseball, golf, softball and swimming. Foley also played a role in the new $4.1 million aquatic advising center on the University of Florida campus, which is UF students and Gaines student athletes and assisted in funding the $8.1 million renovation of the Stephen C. O'Connell Center.

Also, in an era when the NCAA estimated that 100 million dollars of schools are losing money on intercollegiate athletics, the University of Florida Athletic Association has contributed more than $16.3 million to the state's athletic efforts.

Florida has been equally successful in the field of play and in the classroom during Foley's administrative career.

The Florida athletic program has won 10 national titles in 1988-98 and among the top five 10 consecutive years. According to national all sport rankings.

On the national level in 1998-99 UF had another stellar year, as 10 teams finished among the nation's top 10. The University of Florida has won 10 national titles in 1988-98 and among the top five 10 consecutive years.

UF's commitment to the class room is equally impressive. The Gators had a league and school record 21 student-athletes honored for being named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll in 1998-99. It was the 11th consecutive year more than 50 UF student-athletes were honored for academic excellence.

top 10 in their respective sports. The school's 19th national title to highlight Florida's fourth place finish in the National All-Sports Ranking, conducted by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

In the last five years, UF has won four league crowns in 1998-99, winning its total 10th title in the SEC over that time span. For the eighth consecutive year and 10th time in the last and SEC history. Since 1990, Florida has had 129 student athletes named to the SEC's Academic Honor Roll, the highest total for any SEC school over that span as well.

The Foley athletic coaching family, which Foley had a role in, includes coaching staffs of 100 coaches-of-the-year and over the last eight years.

Gator student athletes, coaches and administrators have also been a fixture in the community, taking part in a variety of community related endeavors. In fact, Florida was honored with a White House ceremony in 1998 for its athletic reputation as one of the nation's top athletic directors was further enhanced in August of 1994, as he was named to the NACAA Council - arguably the most powerful and prestigious committee within the NCAA.

Born in Washington, D.C., but calling New London, N.H. home,

Foley attended the University of New Hampshire, where he earned a Bachelor's degree in 1970 and then joined the

The Office of Student Life

Recognizing student athletes face unique pressures, the University of Florida Athletic Department instituted The Office of Student Life in 1979.

This award-winning program of personalized, professional guidance in numerous areas on a day-to-day basis has become a leader in student-athlete services, while also demonstrating UF's commitment to the "total development" of its student athletes.

The commitment has paid some impressive dividends:

- Over the last nine years, Florida has had 713 selections to the Southeastern Conference's Academic Honor Roll — the best nine-year total in UF and SEC history. In each of the last 11 years, Florida has had at least 50 student athletes receive conference academic accolades and since 1980-81, 1,029 Gator student-athletes have been named Academic All-SEC.
- The Gator football team set a school single-season record with 20 players named to the SEC's Academic Honor Roll in 1998. Since 1990, UF has had 126 Academic All-SEC selections, the best nine-year total in SEC history.

- Over the last eight years, the University of Florida is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 of the final Associated Press Poll, while also being a member of the Association of American Universities — the most prestigious organization of higher education in North America.

- Florida was one of 15 schools recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with a 1998 Academic Achievement Award for having a graduation rate of 70 percent or higher. The survey analyzed the progress of the incoming class of 1997, a class at UF that has seen over 80% of its members graduate and was the foundation for the '96 Gator National Championship Team.

- Florida has had some of the nation's most honored scholar athletes the past few years. In 1997, DT Brad Culpepper was the recipient of the Draddy Scholarship Gator Great and current NFL All-Star Emmitt Smith received his diploma in May of 1997.

Trophy presented annually by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's top scholar athlete. Center David Swain was one of only nine national recipients of the Honda Scholar Athlete Award in 1992, in 1993 Michael Gilmore was a first-team Academic All-American and was the state of Florida's lone national finalist for the Rhodes Scholarship. In 1994, Gilmore and Terry Dean were named first-team Academic All-American and Gilmore was a recipient of the Scholar Athlete Award from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. In 1995, Danny Wuerffel was named the GTE Academic All-American of the Year as well as being selected first team Academic All-America and was to the CFA Scholar.

- Danny Wuerffel was the 1996 recipient of the Draddy Scholarship Trophy awarded to the nation's premier football scholar athlete. Florida is the only school in the nation to have two recipients: Brad Culpepper (1991) while Wuerffel became the first Heisman winner to receive the prestigious academic honor. Wuerffel was also the first football player in the nation to be named GTE Academic All-America twice (1995 and 1996).
- Seven student athletes were selected national recipients of Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholars Awards in 1999.

Achieving this type of success begins early. From adding the graduation from high school to college as a freshman to choosing a major at a sophomore through the career advisement process as a junior, until actual career/job placement as a senior, the Office of Student Life is dedicated to the personal growth and academic development of the student athlete.

Sav, Associate Athletic Director for Academic Affairs Dr. Keith Carowine, "We feel it is necessary to develop programs and services for our student

In each of the last 11 years, Florida has had more than 50 student athletes named to the Southeastern Conference's Academic Honor Roll and since 1980-81 the University of Florida has had 1,029 Academic All-SEC selections, the most in the SEC and a credit to OSLS commitment to academic excellence.

athletes which will help them move from a state of dependency to independence and finally to the highest form of maturity: interdependence.

NCAA Selects Florida as Pilot Program

The University of Florida's Office of Student Life has been selected as one of 50 programs in the country to participate in the NCAA Life Skills Program. The mission of the NCAA Life Skills program is to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual as a whole person: academically, athletically, emotionally - and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation.

In addition to being selected to the NCAA Life Skills Program, UF's OSI program was also awarded Honorable Mention accolades by Athletic Management Magazine for its achievement in the area of student athletes services.

Professional Sports Counseling Panel

The University of Florida has a Professional Sports Counseling Panel which assists senior student-athletes in evaluating professional potential, while also providing assistance in selecting professional representation and preparing student athletes for a professional career in sports. The panel, which is endorsed by the NCAA, is made up of three University (previous) appointed members. Florida's panel has been selected as a model panel for other universities to follow.

Academic Achievement Center

UF's academic advising program was named the 1995 Outstanding Institutional Advising Program by the National Academic Advising Association.

The Academic Achievement Center is a three-story, 14,821 square foot building located one block east of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field and houses the University of Florida's Advising Center and the Office of Student Life. The $4.1 million facility, which was financed by a gift from the University Athletic Association and matching funds from the State of Florida Board of Regents, features staff offices, 15 tutorial rooms, two video rooms, two computer labs and a study area.

In October 1998, the Office of Student Life was one of eight Division I programs to win the Program of Excellence for Life Skills Award, honoring excellence in academics and life skills programs.

Goodwill Gators

Making a Difference

The University Athletic Association Office of Student Life is proud to present UF's Goodwill Gators program.

As part of the Champions/ Life Skills program, University of Florida student athletes have contributed many hours of community service to Gainesville and surrounding areas. The purpose of this program is to integrate student athletes within the community. This partnership provides the student athlete with an opportunity to serve as role model, ambassador and public speaker for a variety of profit and non-profit organizations.

In addition, the Goodwill Gators program will be working closely with the Juvenile Justice Department and Alachua County School Board to develop, implement, and maintain service programs to benefit each organization.

The student athletes have enjoyed Goodwill Gators and they consistently dedicate their time and effort to this valuable program.

If you would like more information about our community service program, please contact the Office of Student Life at (352) 355-4683 x5871.

- In 1995-99, 10 Gator teams finished among the top 10 nationally in their respective sport and the women's soccer team won the national championship, the 9th national title for the Gator program. The Florida athletic program has claimed at least one national team title in 12 of the past 18 years.

- The Florida women's program has claimed 107 individual NCAA champions, the second-most for a women's collegiate athletic program.
- Since 1968, 87 Gator student athletes have represented 16 countries in eight Olympic Games, while totaling claim to 51 medals, including 15 golds. Twenty Gators and one U.F. coach represented six countries in Atlanta in the 1996 Summer Olympics, winning three medals.

Dear Prospective Student-Athlete

As the coach at the University of Florida, I want to congratulate you on being considered for a football scholarship at the most prestigious state university in the Southeast. We are very proud of the high academic ranking of our school and the very high value of a degree from our institution.

Our coaching staff wishes you a most successful senior year not only on the football field, but also in the classroom and in other extracurricular activities. Your senior year in high school is one of the most important and fun years of your life. I suggest you enjoy it to the fullest with your teammates and classmates. You'll remember your senior year for the rest of your life. There will be plenty of time to check out the schools of your choice after your high school season is over.

When making one of the most important decisions of your life, which school to attend, I ask you to consider these questions: What university offers the most academically, athletically and socially?

The University of Florida is the second highest-ranked academic school in the Southeastern Conference. Vanderbilt, a private school in Nashville, Tennessee, is first. We are the highest-ranked academic state university in the Southeast.

The University of Florida prides itself on being one of the very few schools in the nation that combines "The Best of Both Worlds," a high ranking and achievement in both academics and athletics. Recent studies have consistently named Florida among the five premier schools in the nation for combining academic quality and athletic success. It is the only school in the state of Florida and the SEC to achieve that distinct reputation for combined academic and athletic attainment.

The fact that the University of Florida is the only member school in the Association of American Universities, the highest ranking a school can achieve for its academic status and achievement, to have seen its football team ranked in the Top 10 in the final AP Poll in each of the last eight seasons is a superb statement about this institution's commitment to combined academic and athletic excellence. In that regard, this is indeed a unique institution of higher education.

The Gators won the 1996 National Championship, captured the coveted SEC title five times this decade, are one of only two teams in the nation to finish each of the past eight seasons ranked in the final AP Top 10 Poll and its 93 total wins since 1990 ranks as the third top total in the nation. In 13 of the last 17 years UF has had a first-round draft pick and our 21 total first-round NFL picks in the last 17 years (from 1983-1991) ranks tied for the best total in the nation over that time frame.

Our goal as coaches is to establish at least a 70% graduation rate for our players. Nearly 70% of the players we have recruited since 1990 who completed their eligibility at UF have received their degree. Over 80% of the seniors on our 1996 National Championship team have received degrees.

Florida has had players named first team Academic All-America six times this decade and has earned 126 total SEC Academic Honor Roll Awards since 1990, the second top total in the league. Florida has also become the first and only school in the nation to have two recipients of the Draddy Trophy, which is presented to the nation's premier football scholar-athlete.

Socially, our university has a healthy atmosphere where students from many different backgrounds enjoy fellowship together.

Whatever a student is looking for in a university or in its location can be found here in Gainesville, Florida, rated the nation's most livable city in a 1995 national ranking.

Have a successful, healthy and fun high school senior year and hopefully for all of us, you'll choose to be a Gator.

Sincerely,

STEVE SPURRIER
Head Football Coach

UF's Blueprint for Success

• The system of books on art emphasizes the positive T can be applied by combining public agencies and business and a series of teachers

• What if we were in a tropical rain forest in Florida for the next 100 years? Would you miss any special things you have well with you? No, we are so used to a life where we are taken by hand — everything is provided for us. In the rain forest, the plants and animals are so used to being taken care of by people that they won't survive without the garden — life as we know it.

• Creating a family atmosphere during the winter holidays is as important as the family members naturally have to share with each other. This is particularly true for children as it is during a holiday time when they are most likely to be with their family. We want to make sure we are giving the children the best of the holiday season and that they can enjoy it to the fullest.

• The taxes that the city is collecting from a group of businesses that are in the city may be used to help pay for the city's public schools.

What we expect and demand from our players is that they be confident of being the best possible player, and to me, as a coach, that's the only way to ensure the happiness of the players. When they will be happy, they will be a better player.

It's important as a coach to teach and develop players skills. What we expect our players to do after an intense training session is to go home and sleep. When that happens, you build players that play smart all the time and keep mental errors at a minimum. This is what we will expect of our players. ●●

"While many people go to college during the recruiting process, no school could offer me what the University of Florida offers in both academics and athletics. Many people see the success on the playing fields, but the success in the classroom is just as impressive. The University of Florida is the perfect place to get a top-notch education on and off the field."

DANNY WUERFFEL

1996 Heisman Trophy recipient, the 1995 and 1996 GTE Academic All-American of the Year and 1996 Braddy Trophy recipient (presented to the nation's premier scholar-athlete by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame).

Danny Wuerffel received the nation's top awards for achievement on and off the field in 1996. Wuerffel was the recipient of the Heisman Trophy as the nation's most outstanding player, as well as the Braddy Trophy, which is presented to the nation's premier football scholar-athlete. Florida is the only school in the nation to have had more than one recipient of the Braddy Trophy (OT Brad Culpepper also received this award in 1991).

"In deciding which university to attend, my last step was to eliminate football and choose a school that was academically right for me and had the strongest reputation. When I did that, Florida was clearly the superior choice. The facts solidly show that Florida is rated among the elite schools for academic reputation and athletic reputation. When you combine both, you clearly have a winner. To be a student-athlete at Florida is a true honor because of the status of achievement in academics and athletics."

First Class Facilities

Convenient Facilities Rate Among Nation's Elite

From beautiful Florida Field, to the new (August 1998) locker rooms, weight and conditioning area, training and physical therapy complex and squad and position meeting rooms to the practice area, dining and living areas and the coaches offices, convenience and quality was paramount when putting together one of the most impressive athletic facility complexes in the country. In the last four years alone, Gator student athletes have seen a new academic center, new living areas, and a new dining hall built and a major renovation of the football stadium strength and training complex take place. Because everything that was built was designed with the student-athlete in mind, Florida's complex not only rates as one of the premier units in the nation, but it also rates among the most efficient and well-conceived in the country as well. All one has to do is listen to Florida student athletes talk about the facilities to quickly appreciate how highly they are regarded.

"As a player you make such a commitment and it means a great deal to us as players that the University of Florida continually shows it appreciates that effort and dedication by providing superb facilities. The new football complex is another example of that dedication and commitment to providing its players with the best."

- ED CHESTER

"All the facilities are first-class. I really appreciated the fact that everything was so centrally located. I didn't have to walk far to get anywhere. Everyone appreciated the fact that the convenience factor for the athlete was kept in mind when all the new facilities were built."

- RB EMMITT SMITH

"The tremendous facilities at UF mean so much because they dramatically demonstrate a commitment to excellence and support and it allows the players to be the best prepared players they can be mentally and physically."

A new University residence facility, which features six four-story apartment buildings, houses many of UF's student-athletes.

The expansion and renovation of the Ben Hill Griffin Training Complex in the south endzone area of Florida Field is the latest crown jewel to UF's superb facilities.

"I was recruited on a national level and after seeing a lot of schools' facilities there is no question that Florida's ranks at the very top. Everything, and I mean everything, is first-class in this regard. You can tell that everything was built with the student-athlete's best interests in mind. You can also see very clearly that the administration at Florida is completely dedicated to the very best facilities in every sense. The renovation of the south endzone complex is another prime example of that dedication."

A new dining facility, which sits across the street from the football stadium and is within easy walking distance of living areas, was recently built.

A new academic support and studying center opened in August 1996, serving the needs of Gator student-athletes.

Gator players and support staff moved into a newly renovated and expanded Ben Hill Griffin Training Complex last August. UF's complex, located in the south end zone of the football stadium, was already one of the best in the nation, but the renovations and expansion truly make the facility one of the country's elite.

The state-of-the-art complex was expanded from 36,000 square feet to nearly 51,000 square feet. Locker areas, meeting rooms, strength and conditioning areas, medical and training staff areas and equipment space were all increased significantly in size.

Here are some of the highlights of UF's new complex:

Amphitheater

A new 130-seat amphitheater squad meeting room was built. The room, which holds all squad meetings, also serves as the location of all post-game and weekly press conferences with Coach Spurrier and Gator players. The room is also equipped with state-of-the-art audio and video capabilities for coaches and players to view film.

Individual Meeting Rooms

Each Gator coach has an individual room for meeting with his position players. The rooms are all equipped with state-of-the-art audio and video capabilities providing top-of-the-line teaching and learning experience for Gator coaches and players.

Locker Room

Florida's locker room was greatly expanded, providing spacious areas for each player's individual locker. A lounge was also built adjacent to the locker room, solely for use by Gator players. The lounge features television and other entertainment, as well as a study area.

Locker Room

Training Room

The training room was expanded in size and features a whirlpool-size sauna for treatment, as well as everything needed for the prevention and treatment of injuries.

Superlative Support

UF Clearly Stands Among Nation's Elite

Florida football is more than a sport. For hundreds of thousands of fans in the Sunshine State it is an obsession. Their enthusiasm and loyalty, which they demonstrate time and time again, has elevated Florida football to a level where it unquestionably ranks as the most supported team in the state and indeed, among the most supported in all of college football. That support and interest will continue to grow and led to a 10,000 seat expansion of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in 1999 which raised capacity to over 84,000 and elevated the Gator program to the highest echelon of support in the nation.

The following facts clearly demonstrate the premier level of support that Florida football receives.

- In 1998 Florida played before average home crowds of over 85,463 a mark that ranked sixth in the nation.
- In each of the last seven seasons, Florida has ranked among the nation's top six schools in average home attendance.
- Over the last 17 years Florida has ranked among the top 10 percent of all teams in the nation in attendance.

"The support you receive is really hard to describe. I grew up in Gainesville and part of the reason why I wanted to play so much for the Gators was to experience the warmth, caring and passion from the fans. As much as I dreamed what that would be like, it was even better. Gator fans are special and they are a big reason why the Florida football experience is so unique and treasured by its players."

— Chris Doering

- In 1984 Florida became the first organization in Sunshine State history to sell every ticket to every home game prior to the start of the season. That achievement has been matched by Cal or fans several times since.

- From 1985-90 Florida sold 100% of all available season tickets. 62,000 prior to the start of the season. This type of demand led to the decision to add 10,000 additional seats in '99, increasing the number of available season tickets to over 70,500. Once again.

demand has exhausted that supply in each of the last eight years. In short, all available season tickets have been sold each of the past 4 seasons.

- The Gators have played before home crowds of more than 80,000 in each of the past 52 home games. During that same period (1997-98) other football playing schools in the state have played before home crowds of more than 80,000 just nine times.

- U.F. has participated in each of the 20 largest all-time top attendance games in state history: regular season college and pro games, bowl games, pro playoff and Super Bowl games.
- Florida sells over 70,000 season tickets, more than any other collegiate or professional sports team in the state of Florida.

- Gator Boosters, Inc. is an organization formed to promote academic, athletic interest by raising scholarship funds for all U.F. student athletes and assisting with the improving and enhancing of athletic facilities. Gator Boosters numbers over 1,000 members and provides more than $40 million annually in support of its missions.

— QB SHANE MATTHEWS

*National record for a conference

- Beginning in 1996, CBS became the national network provider of Southeastern Conference (football). CBS will televise a minimum number of 12 games per year through the year 2000.

- During the decade of the 1980's, no conference posted a better non-conference record (358-64-17 for a 690-100) played in more bowl games (516 total bowl appearances) with more post-season bowl games (31), appeared in more final Associated Press Top Twenty (36), Top Ten (22) or Top Five polls (11), had more Heisman Trophy winners (2), and had more teams in the top 10 in final AP poll figures (40) than the Southeastern Conference.

Bedded in the ground of tradition, proud of its successful past, proven in its present and excited about its promising future, the SEC heads into the final stages of the 1990's with great anticipation as The Tradition Continues.

"Top to bottom, the SEC is the strongest league, thanks to the overall athleticism on each team. Simply put, the SEC has the best collection of athletes in any league outside the NFL."

32-4: The record of SEC football teams against non-conference opponents in the 1997 regular season, an 88% winning percentage that is the best in NCAA history by any league against outside competition.

In 1992 the Southeastern Conference became the first league to develop the conference championship game on the Division I-A level. It has been a huge success, having been viewed by over 175 million people on television over the past seven seasons. Florida played in each of the first five title games.

"Coming out of the tunnel for an SEC game is a very special feeling. You can feel the passion and enthusiasm for college football. You can feel all of the history and tradition that has made the SEC the nation's premier football conference. It's just a very special feeling that I'll never forget."

Tradition & Heritage

Florida Has A Proud Past

Football tradition and heritage come in many guises. It results from a steady flow of achievements through the years that together eventually stamp a program with an impressive list of accomplishments. As the following facts point out, the University of Florida is one of those schools that has compiled an impressive list of achievements and accomplishments.

- Florida has officially been classified a college football dynasty by the NCAA in its annual record book publication, one of only a few schools to ever receive that rare and elite distinction. Florida's success in the 1990's, the Spomer era, resulted in UF earning that honor.

Florida's superb list of achievements over the course of the decade of the 1990's have resulted in the Gator program being classified a "major college dynasty" by the NCAA—a rare and elite distinction that has been bestowed on just a few schools over the course of collegiate history.

- The Gators captured the 1996 National Championship.
- Florida was a charter member of the prestigious Southeastern Conference when it was formed in 1933.
- UF is the only team in SEC history to win 10 or more - games for six straight seasons (1993-98) and it is one of only three major college teams to ever achieve that distinction.

- Florida appeared in the 1995 National Championship Game vs. Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl and the 1996 National Champion-

- Florida has been ranked in the Associated Press Top Twenty Poll at some point in the season in 43 of the last 48 years.
- QB Steve Spurrier was the recipient of the 1966 Heisman Trophy. He coached

- Linebacker Wilber Marshall was named the "National Defensive Player of the Year" in 1983 and defensive tackle Ellis Johnson earned that award in 1994.
- UF has appeared in more SEC Championship Games (5) than any other school in the league.

It is the only school in league history to win at least eight conference games in a season four straight years (1993-96) as well as the only school in SEC history to win at least ten games for six straight seasons (1993-98).

Brad Culpepper won the award in 1991 and Danny Wuerffel was the recipient in 1996.

The media attention at Florida is more than you can imagine. Media representatives came from all over to cover the program daily. There never is any question in your mind that team and individual performances won't receive the maximum amount of attention.

Media Attention

Gators Are Always in National Limelight

Florida is unquestionably one of the nation's most televised teams. Since 1990, 86 of UF's 112 games have been televised live including 57 national appearances. Since 1982 every Gator game but two (201 of 203) has been on television, either live or on a statewide delayed basis.

The media attention and exposure associated with the Florida football program is nationally renowned. The Gator program has a reputation around the country for being one of, if not the most, intensely covered collegiate teams in the country. The daily media attention assures that the Florida team and its players receive incredible media and public exposure. That unmatched exposure leads to a high degree of team and individual recognition. As the facts below demonstrate, very few schools in the nation can match the University of Florida's high media profile.

- Since 1982, every Florida football game except two has been televised on either

- Over 60 radio stations, the largest group in the state, make up the Gator Radio Network.
- Publicity Watch, a magazine that analyzes and weighs media coverage, assembled a list of respected schools in both academics and athletics to see which universities received the most ink and air time. Comparing coverage during the period from September-December 1997, the magazine ranked the University of Florida among the top three schools in the nation.

A recent study by Publicity Watch Magazine ranked Florida among the top three schools in the nation for the most media exposure.

There is so much coverage of Florida by the media. Virtually every newspaper in Florida is here on a daily basis watching practice and writing stories on the team. It makes playing football at the University of Florida very exciting knowing that your hard work and dedication does not go unnoticed.

SWAMPED

"Florida gets an awful lot of media attention, both nationally and regionally. You can always find a Florida game on television. Virtually all of our games are televised nationally. Reporters, television crews and radio personalities attend practices, press conferences and games and the Sports Information Department does a great job in helping us deal with the incredible media attention."

DANNY WUERFFEL
1996 Heisman Trophy Recipient

Over 1,000 media credentials were issued for the 1995 and 1996 national championship games in which Florida participated.

Incredibly, Florida has appeared on live network television in 41 of its last 48 games (85%) and an amazing 77% of the time overall since 1990.

Recognition

High Profile Puts Gators in Prime Position for National Awards

In 1996 Florida's Boomer Whorff became one of the most honored players in collegiate athletics. He is the only Heisman Trophy winner to also receive the Draddy Trophy, which is presented to the nation's premier scholar-athlete.

During the 1990's Gator players have received the Heisman Trophy, Thorpe Award, Willis Award, O'Brien Award (twice), Maxwell Award, Camp Award, Draddy Trophy (twice), Green Award, as well as being recognized as National Offensive Player of the Year and National Defensive Player of the Year. No other school in the nation this decade can also claim a recipient for all of these prestigious national awards.

The combination of tremendous media attention on a daily basis, the large number of national television exposures and the national respect for the quality of play in the Southeastern Conference combine to place University of Florida players in an excellent position to garner national recognition, honors and awards.

Those factors combine to place Gator players in the national limelight on a much more consistent basis in comparison to most other schools and players.

Consider the following:

- Since 1982 alone, Gator players have earned a combined 110 All-America honors.
- Since Steve Spurrier arrived on the Gator scene in 1990, Florida players have earned a combined 63 All-America honors, an average of seven players per season. Five players received that honor in 1990, 11 in 1991, eight in 1992, 12 players in 1993, six in 1994, six in 1995, seven in 1996, four in 1997 and five in 1998.
- Florida is one of only 14 schools that has had multiple recipients of the Heisman Trophy.
- At least one University of Florida player has earned first-team All-America honors in 19 of the last 20 years.
- Florida's 21 total NFL first-round draft selections since 1983 rank tied for the best total in the nation in that time period (1983-99).
- In 1996 Gator players were finalists for eight of the 13 national "Player of the Year" awards given, including the recipients of seven of those national honors (Heisman, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Maxwell Award, O'Brien Quarterback of the Year, Unitas Golden Arm, Thorpe Award and Honda Scholar-Athlete), the most of any school in the nation.

■ From 1983-91, Florida had 13 players selected in the opening round of the NFL Draft, the most for any school in the nation over that nine-year time span.

An Average of seven Gator players per season have attained All-America recognition since Coach Spurrier arrived on the Florida scene in 1990.

as Orlando Pace captured the Outland and Lombardi awards.

- A Florida player has received the "SEC Player of the Year" award in five of the past 10 years (1989-98). During that same span, only one other SEC school has had more than one recipient. Since 1984 Florida captured more "SEC Player of the Year" awards (6) than any other school in the conference.
- From 1983-91, Florida had at least one player selected in the first round of the NFL Draft each year, the only school in the nation to achieve that distinction over that nine-year period. In fact, UF is the only school in the nation to ever achieve that distinction since the NFL began its draft in 1936.

- In 1987 Emmitt Smith became just the second freshman in history to finish in the top 10 of the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.
- Brad Culpepper, a 199 first-team All-America at defensive tackle, was also named the Toyota ESPN National Student Leader of the Year and the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, which is presented annually by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's premier scholar athlete. Danny Wuerffle claimed the same award in 1996, making Florida the only school to ever have more than one winner of this prestigious award.

Linebacker Irvon Kearse was one of three finalists in 1998 for the Butkus Linebacker of the Year Award, as well as the Bednarik National Defensive Player of the Year Award. He is one of 21 Gators selected in the first round of the NFL Draft since 1983, a total that is tied for the best total for a school in the nation over that 17-year frame (1983-99).

In 1996 Gator players were finalists for eight of the 13 national "Player of the Year" awards given, including the recipients of seven of those national honors (Heisman, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Maxwell Award, O'Brien Quarterback of the Year, Unitas Golden Arm, Thorpe Award and Honda Scholar-Athlete), the most of any school in the nation.

At least one University of Florida player has earned first-team All-America honors in 19 of the last 20 years. Florida's 21 first-round selections in the NFL Draft from 1983-99 tie for the best total for a school in the nation over that 17-year time frame.

Legendary quarterback Johnny Unitas presents the 1996 United Golden Arm Award (nation's top senior quarterback) to Danny White.

Offensive guard Dennis Young (above) and center Jeff Mitchell (left) were both named semifinalists for the Outland Award (nation's top interior lineman) in 1996. UF was one of only two schools in 1996 to have two semifinalists for this award.

UF safety Lawrence Wright (above) received the 1996 Thorpe Award, which is presented to the nation's top defensive back. Cornerback Fred Weary was one of three finalists for the award in 1997.

Justin Davis (right) was the recipient of the 1993 Grant National Place-Kicker of the Year Award.

Danny Wuerffel won college football's most prestigious award, the 1996 Heisman Trophy, and he also became just the second QB to receive the O'Brien National Quarterback of the Year Award twice (1995, 96).

Emmitt Smith is one of five Gator players named the SEC Player of the Year since 1989.

In 1994 and 1995, Jason Odom captured the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the SEC's top offensive lineman. A Gator offensive lineman has claimed this award in four of past seven years. Odom was also one of three finalists for the 1995 Outland Award and a semifinalist for the Lombardi Award.

Joaque Green was a finalist for the 1997 Biletnikoff Award, which is presented to the nation's top receiver. UF has had more finalists for this award (3) than any school in the country since 1994.

Johnny Riddle was named one of 10 semifinalists for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker in both 1997 and 1998.

Linebacker Wilbur Marshall (left) and defensive tackle Ellis Johnson (right) were named the National Defensive Player of the Year in 1983 and 1994, respectively.

Bowl Game Experience

Florida played in each of the 1995 and 1996 National Championship Games at the Fiesta and Sugar Bowls, respectively. The Gators posted a 52-20 win in the 1997 Nokia Sugar Bowl over Florida State to garner the 1996 national title. The Gators have gone to a bowl game in each of the last eight years, with seven being major New Year's games.

There really is nothing quite like the experience of playing in a bowl game, especially in a National Championship Bowl Game as Florida has done twice in the past four seasons. The event and the surrounding experiences are among the most pleasurable memories of a college football career.

Much of those memories and experiences come from traveling to different cities and states, as well as playing in big bowl games. In that regard, Florida has been tough to match. Since 1980, Gator football teams have participated in 4 bowl games held in 10 different cities and eight different states, stretching from coast-to-coast and beyond. Since 1980, Florida football squads have played in postseason bowl games in Honolulu, Hawaii, the Los Angeles area, Tempe, Arizona, Houston, Birmingham, Atlanta, Jacksonville, Miami, Orlando and in New Orleans three times in the last six years. The 1995 squad headed to the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Arizona, to play for the National Championship, while the 1996 team made its fourth visit in the last eight years to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, where it claimed the 1996 National Championship.

With Coach Spurrier's crowd-pleasing offense, an exciting and attacking defense, a high national profile and loyal supporters, Florida is one of the nation's most attractive bowl teams of the 1990's. That has clearly been demonstrated as UF has played in bowl games that set all-time attendance records in three of the last four years (1996 Fiesta, 1997 Sugar, 1998 Citrus).

Florida has played in seven New Year's bowl games this decade alone and broken a bowl's attendance record at three of the last four bowl games it has attended.

Gator Gameday

THIS IS THE SWAMP

All of the interest, emotion, dedication, passion, loyalty and commitment that makes Gator football so special manifests itself on gameday at Florida Field, a.k.a. "The Swamp." The state's captivation with Gator football along with unwavering fan loyalty and passion, turns beautiful Florida Field — truly one of the nation's great spectator stadiums — into a sea of orange and blue emotion and support that is hard to fully describe.

Suffice it to say that Florida students, alumni and fans truly believe that they are indeed the 12th man on the field. They have played a very large contributing role in the Gators' sparkling 96-11-2 record at home since the 1981 season. L.F. is 53-2 at "The Swamp" this decade and its current 27 game home winning streak is the longest in the nation.

The emotion, crowd participation and electric atmosphere that is created at Florida Field on gameday has become nationally renowned. In 1987 the National Cheerleaders Association of America selected the Gator faithful as the most participative and supportive crowd in all of college athletics in the first year of national competition for that award. In 1989 The Sporting News named Florida as the top college crowd in the nation in its preseason football magazine and in that 1996 publication named Florida Field the nation's loudest stadium.

"Florida Field is the nation's loudest stadium. Take any heavy-metal album, crank it, then place your speakers in a tin basement. That sounds like a library compared to 'The Swamp.'"

SPORTING NEWS, 1996

"The Swamp is an atmosphere that is just incredible. The electricity and the environment make it just a phenomenal place to play. Everyone backs you so much. Mostly being down there with these guys that you work so hard with, your teammates that you care about so much. To have so many people supporting you and what you are doing is pretty much indescribable."

A Total Commitment to Assisting Student-Athletes Reach Goals

The University of Florida has evolved into one of the nation's premier schools for combining the "Best of Both Worlds" - a combination of superb academic and athletic attainment. The University sincerely appreciates the efforts of the hundreds of student-athletes who have built and perpetuated Florida's ever-growing national standing for achievement and excellence.

As a result of that understanding and appreciation for the efforts extended, the University and the University Athletic Association have made a demonstrated commitment to providing its student-athletes with not only the best facilities but also the best as it relates to academic and physical care and development. The Office of Student Life, sports health, and strength and conditioning staffs are all nationally renowned in their respective fields. With a new state-of-the-art academic center, UF's Office of Student Life, already nationally renowned for its superb service, has become even better.

Each department has a demonstrated commitment to assisting young men and women reach their goals and objectives in the classroom while also maximizing their potential as athletes. For each of these support staffs at the University of Florida their first and primary focus and concern is the student-athlete. They strive each day to create an atmosphere of personal care and concern that the student-athletes truly appreciate and respect.

As the comments on these pages show, Florida's student-athletes do indeed respect, admire and appreciate the paramount personal care that they receive. Their comments provide testimony that the University of Florida's drive, effort, dedication and commitment for providing first-class personal care and direction is indeed admired and respected by its toughest critics - the student-athletes themselves and their parents.

"A primary mission of the Office of Student Life is to provide quality programs and services that will assist students to reach their highest potential. The focus of our programs is to foster life-long learning and leadership skills which will direct student-athletes toward self-reliance, self-discipline, and responsibility for their own lives."

Achievement Off The Field

- The University of Florida is the only school that has ever had more than one winner of the Draddy Trophy, (a.k.a. the Academic Heisman), presented annually to the nation's premier football scholar-athlete (Brad Culpepper in 1991 and Danny Wuerffel in 1996). In 1996, Wuerffel became the only player to ever win both the Draddy Trophy and the Heisman Trophy.
- Florida set an all-time SEC record in 1994 when 19 Gator football players were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- During the 1990's UF can boast some of the nation's premier football scholar-athletes:
 - In 1996 Danny Wuerffel was named the recipient of the Draddy Trophy from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame as the nation's premier football scholar-athlete. He was also selected, along with DB Lawrence Wright, to the 1996 College Football Association (CFA) Scholar-Athlete Team. In addition, Wuerffel was named the GTE Academic All-American of the Year for the second consecutive season and was also awarded the Honda National Scholar-Athlete Award.
 - In 1998 running back Terry Jackson, a second-team Academic All-America selection, received an NCAA postgraduate scholarship award.
 - Florida (defensive back Lawrence Wright and quarterback Danny Wuerffel) was one of only four schools to have more than one student-athlete named to the 1996 CFA Scholar-Athlete Team.
 - In 1995 QB Danny Wuerffel, third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was named the GTE Academic All-American of the Year.
 - In 1993 and 1994 DB Michael Gilmore was a first-team GTE Academic All-America and College Football Association Scholar-Athlete team honoree. In 1993 he was the state of Florida's lone national finalist for the prestigious Rhodes Scholar Program.
- UF was one of 16 schools recognized by the College Football Association in 1992 for graduating 70% or more of its players. UF was credited with an 81% graduation rate in that year's national survey and in 1998 it was one of 25 schools honored by the AFCA for having a graduation rate of 70 percent or higher.
- At least one Gator football player has received Academic All-America honors in six of the past eight seasons.
- Florida's 187 total SEC Academic Honor Roll football recipients since 1980 ranks as the second-top total in the league, as does its 126 in the decade of the 1990's.

"Far too often, the balance between athletics and academics is overlooked in 'Big Time' college athletics. I am proud to say this never occurred with me, and I am confident that the UAA (University Athletic Association) will continue to encourage both athletic and academic excellence."

— GARY ROLLE, M.D.,
Florida Wide Receiver, 1982-84, National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award Recipient

"The Office of Student Life is one of the extraordinary pieces of this program. It begins with a real emphasis by Athletic Director Jeremy Foley and is led by Dr. Keith Carodine. The entire staff is committed to helping student-athletes get an education and earn their degree. It doesn't matter if your son is a star player or a backup. They push them and guide them. The staff makes a tremendous difference in their lives."

— LEE McGRUFF

Former Gator wide receiver and the father of wide receiver Travis McGriff, who was a third-team All-American and an SEC Academic Honor Roll selection in 1998.

"Fred has a lot of respect for the coaching staff and everyone associated with the athletic department. They made a big difference in his life. He really looks up to them. They made academics the number one priority. He understands, no work, no play. The Office of Student Life had helped him grow a lot. He didn't take academics very seriously in high school, but he became very stable in his studies and had excellent study habits. The OSL made a big difference. The athletic department allowed Fred to exercise his gifts, both on and off the field. It made a tremendous difference in him, and he takes things seriously. They made a great difference in both of our lives. It is such a nice school."

— LENORA RICHARDSON

son Fred Weary was a All-America defensive back in 1997

"The OSL staff and program is such a great support system for all student-athletes. The staff works hard at teaching you how to be a responsible and productive person. They get behind you early and help you develop good habits and techniques that will make you successful in and out of the classroom if you listen to them and carry out the things that you are taught. The staff and program are part of what makes the University of Florida such a special place."

— LAWRENCE WRIGHT

1996 Thorpe Award recipient as the nation's top defensive back, as well as a 1996 College Football Association (CFA) Scholar-Athlete Team selection
